Parental Objection to Release of Student Information to Military Recruiters, College/University Recruiters, or Prospective Employers

Dear Parent(s)/Guardian(s):

Public high schools must give the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of students to military recruiters, college/university recruiters, and prospective employers if the recruiters request the information (P.L. 107-110, Section 9528; 10 USC 503). However, students or their parents have the right to instruct the school in writing that this information is not to be released.

You must complete this form indicating whether you consent to the release of this information to 1) military recruiters, 2) college/university recruiters, and/or 3) prospective employers.

Consent to the release of this information to military recruiters:

_____ Yes, I consent to the release of this information to military recruiters.
_____ No, I do not consent to the release of this information to military recruiters.

Consent to the release of this information to colleges/university recruiters:

_____ Yes, I consent to the release of this information to colleges/university recruiters.
_____ No, I do not consent to the release of this information to colleges/university recruiters.

Consent to the release of this information to prospective employers:

_____ Yes, I consent to the release of this information to prospective employers.
_____ No, I do not consent to the release of this information to prospective employers.
