

English Language Learners Classes

Grace Baptist Church, in Westlake, Ohio, is providing conversational English language courses. These classes are for those eighteen and older and will focus on day-to-day living so the student can gain confidence in the most important conversations with other members of the community. These classes are designed to help the students speak English with confidence in everyday situations. Whether new to the language or looking to strengthen foundational skills, our conversational classes provide a warm, welcoming place to grow.
