2026 Hall of Honor Goal I (Faith) Award Recipient
Jennifer Wolfington Reid ‘89, P’17

Jennifer Reid, Sacred Heart Class of 1989, has devoted her life to faith, family, service, and leadership. She and her husband, Charlie, have been married for 30 years and are the proud parents of six children and grandparents to one grandchild. Jennifer’s connection to Sacred Heart extends well beyond her years as a student.

Her three daughters attended Sacred Heart from 2004 to 2018, and during that time Jennifer generously served the school community in numerous capacities, including homeroom parent, volunteer, and member of the Board of Trustees. Her commitment to the mission and values of Sacred Heart has left a lasting impact on the school and its families.

Professionally, Jennifer is the Co-Founder and Managing Partner of Peoplevest, an organization she helped establish in 2012 with the mission of unlocking the God-given potential within individuals and organizations. Through her leadership, she has helped countless people discover their strengths and purpose, empowering them to achieve meaningful growth and success.

Outside of work and family, Jennifer is a dedicated member of St. Norbert Parish in Paoli, where she serves as an adult altar server, daily mass coordinator, and member of the liturgy team. Together with Charlie, she is also deeply committed to promoting strong marriages and healthy families. They mentor more than fifteen couples, accompanying them through the joys and challenges of marriage and family life.
