

2026-2027 NOMS TEACHER SUPPLY LIST- Grade 7

| 7-1 Team                         |     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
|----------------------------------|-----|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Mr. Fett (Science)               | 368 | earbuds (for new iPad--will not work with plugs), colored pencils, pencils, 1 inch binder, lined notebook with 3 holes; highlighter                                                                                                        |
| Mrs. Hull                        | 362 | MATH -Headphones or earbuds (USB-C or Bluetooth compatible), stylus(optional), pencils/erasers and TI-30X ISS calculatorELA -Headphones or earbuds (USB-C or Bluetooth compatible), stylus(optional) and pencils/erasers |
| Ms. Karkuff (Language Arts)      | 378 | earbuds, pencils and erasers, colored pencils, highlighter, notebook, 1" 3-ring binder                                                                                                                                                     |
| Mr. Strausbaugh (Social Studies) | 370 | 1"-2" binder for S.S. ONLY, high lighter, SPIRAL notebook, earbuds, colored pencils                                                                                                                                                        |
| Mrs. K. Wildasin                 | 377 | ELA - earbuds, pencils, colored pencils, 1 or 1.5" 3-ring binder. SCIENCE - earbuds, pencils, colored pencils, folder                                                                                                                      |
| Mr. Zinn (Math)                  | 369 | 1" binder or folder, pencils, TI-30X IIS calculator                                                                                                                                                                                        |

| 7-2 Team                     |     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
|------------------------------|-----|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Mr. Harned (Science)         | 198 | -headphones/earbuds (USB-C or Bluetooth compatible)-pens/pencils for the entire year-1" 3-ring binder (can be used with another class like math)-colored pencils/highlighters-reusable water bottle |
| Mr. Heird (Math)             | 207 | TI-30X IIS calculator;earbuds/headphones, stylus (useful but not required)1" 3-Ring BinderHeadphones/earbuds (USB-C or Bluetooth compatible)                                                   |
| Ms. Aparicio (Language Arts) | 205 | 1" 3-ring binder, pencils, colored pencils, highlighters                                                                                                                                                            |
| Mr. Smith (Social Studies)   | 204 | 1" three ring binder                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Mrs. Cosgrove                | 199 | Social Studies- earbuds, 1" 3-ring binder, pencil, stylus, folder Math- notebook, calculator, pencils, 1" 3-ring binder, folder                                                                                     |

| 7-3 Team                      |     |                                                                                                                                                |
|-------------------------------|-----|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Mr. Angelini (Social Studies) | 185 | a 1" or 1.5" three-ring binder                                                                                                                 |
| Dr. Staley (Language Arts)    | 189 | pencils, highlighters, composition book                                                                                                        |
| Mr. Skimski (Science)         | 194 | Composition or other bound notebook, Colored pencils, 1 pocket folder, charging block and cord would be extremely helpful.                     |
| Mr. Myers (Math)              | 187 | TI-30X IIS calculator, stylus (useful but not required)1" 3-Ring Binder, a spiral notebook or composition book that will fit in the binder |
| Team Materials                |     | Please get one set of the following:- Pencils- Highlighter- Colored pens or pencils- Headphones or earbuds                     |

STYLUS WOULD BE USEFUL IN MOST CLASSES, BUT NOT MANDATORY

2026-2027 NOMS TEACHER SUPPLY LIST- Grade 8

| 8-1 Team                      |     |                                                                                                                          |
|-------------------------------|-----|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Mrs. Salmon                   | 361 | earbuds (for new iPad--will not work with plugs), pencils, 1 inch binder, lined notebook with 3 holes, stylus (optional) |
| Mrs. Myers (Language Arts)    | 357 | earbuds (for new iPad--will not work with plugs), 1" 3-ring binder, highlighter, pens, pencils                           |
| Mr. Polashuk (Social Studies) | 359 | 1" 3 - Ring Binder, Pencils                                                                                              |
| Mrs. Renoll (Math)            | 356 | 1" or 1.5" 3-ring binder, pencils, graph paper, TI-30X IIS calculator, bluetooth earbuds/headphones, stylus (optional)   |
| Mr. Starnier                  | 355 | Science- 1 in. binder, pencilsSocial Studies- 1 in. binder, pencils                                                  |
| Mr. Stiles (Science)          | 364 | stylus (optional but preferred), pencils, pen, highlighter, folder                                                       |

| 8-2 Team                   |     |                                                                                                                                                                                     |
|----------------------------|-----|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Mr. Cales (Social Studies) | 342 | Folder to leave in classroom, colored pencils, pencils, ruler, highlighters at least two colors                                                                                     |
| Ms. Kale (Science)         | 341 | composition book, glue stick/tape                                                                                                                                                   |
| Mrs. Wade (Language Arts)  | 351 | pencils, pen, highlighter, folder, stylus for ipad                                                                                                                                  |
| Mrs. Weikert (Math)        | 352 | team materials listed below and a TI-30X IIS calculator (or similar)                                                                                                                |
| Ms. T. Wildasin            | 358 | Notebook, pencil, colored pencils, markers, and a TI-30X IIS calculator (if you would prefer you own)                                                                               |
| Team Materials             |     | Please get one set of the following:- 1.5" 3-ring binder- 5 divider tabs for binder- Pencils- Pens- Colored Pencils- Highlighter- Headphones or earbuds |

| 8-3 Team                        |     |                                                                           |
|---------------------------------|-----|---------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Dr. Culver (Science)            | 337 | Pocket folder, earbuds/headphones, pencils, colored pencils, highlighters |
| Mrs. Kann (Social Studies)      | 332 | earbuds, 1" 3-ring binder, colored pencils, highlighter, pencil           |
| Mr. Baumgardner (Language Arts) | 333 | earbuds/headphones, pocket folder, highlighters                           |
| Mr. Warner (Math)               | 327 | 1" or 1.5" binder, graph paper notebook, TI-30X IIS calculator            |

STYLUS WOULD BE USEFUL IN MOST CLASSES, BUT NOT MANDATORY

ALL PATHS TEACHERS

|                                      |                     |                                                                                     |
|--------------------------------------|---------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Mr. Edwards/Mr. Defilippo/Ms. Grothe | P.E.                | pencils, pocket folder or small binder, lined notebook paper, earbuds, Water Bottle |
| Mr. Dull                             | Tech. Ed.           | Earbuds, pocket folder, pencil                                                      |
| Mr. Ahrens                           | Tech. Ed.           | Folder, headphones, pencil,                                                         |
| Mr. Zirk                             | Exploratory Spanish |                                                                                     |

|                 |             |                                                                                                               |
|-----------------|-------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Mrs. Wilson     | FCS         | Folder, pencils                                                                                               |
| Ms. Wojno       | Life Skills | Reusable Water Bottle, Headphones (USB-C or Bluetooth compatible), Pencils, Colored Pencils, Markers, Tissues |
| Mrs. Engelhardt | FCS         | Folder, pencils                                                                                               |
| Mrs. Mummert    | Art         |                                                                                                               |

|               |                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|---------------|---------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Mr. Rohrbaugh | 7th General Music & Band  | 7th General Music - Pencil (s), Folder with pockets, headphones for iPad (useful but not required)8th Grade General Music - Pencil(s) Folder with pockets, headphones for ipad. 7-8 Chorus - black 1" 3 ring binder. |
| Dr. Weary     | 8th General Music & Choir |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| Mrs. Zwisler  | Orchestra                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |

STYLUS WOULD BE USEFUL IN MOST CLASSES, BUT NOT MANDATORY