retake if necessary (70% needed to pass).

The screenshot shows the SIA for Kids WORKS training interface. On the left sidebar, there is a logo, a language dropdown set to 'English', a class timer at 00:00:24, and a 'CLICK EACH SECTION' button. Below this, a list of sections is shown: '1. Child Abuse and Neglect Rep...' and '2. Take Test', with the latter highlighted by a red box and an arrow pointing to it. A red box with the text 'Click here to start test' is also present. The main area features a video player with a green progress bar and a 'Next' button. A 'Notice' box is overlaid on the video, stating: 'The training course you are about to review may be emotionally heightening or triggering to some viewers. The subject matter is a sensitive topic, and while our goal is to provide relevant information that you can use, we are aware that the content and images may be disturbing. This is not our intention. If you feel at any point you need to leave the course, you can do so and return at any time. If you find the material too disturbing or triggering, please contact your immediate supervisor or an appropriate resource in your district or community.' The video background shows a large, illuminated classical building at night. At the bottom, there is a section titled 'Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting — Training for Volunteers in California' with a copyright notice: '© 2026 PublicSchoolWORKS, a Raptor Technologies Company. All rights reserved.' On the right side of the bottom section, there is a 'Help' link and 'Additional Information: Resources'.
