FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Lafayette School Corporation to host Back-to-School Fair

4-6 p.m. Thursday, July 23, Crawley Athletic Center at Jefferson High School

The Lafayette School Corporation is welcoming members of the community to visit its first-ever Back-to-School Fair 4-6 p.m. Thursday, July 23, at the Jefferson High School Crawley Athletic Center.

The event, which is open to current and prospective families, will give community members an opportunity to visit with our schools and see what LSC has to offer.

Other community agencies will also be represented at the fair, including: Bauer Family Resources, CityBus, Food Finders, Hanna Center, IN Dept. of Child Services, It's My Closet, IU Health Community Outreach, Just Kidding, Lafayette Children's Choir, Mental Health America, Public Schools Foundation of Tippecanoe County, Riggs Community Health Center, School Smiles, Tippecanoe County Health Dept., Tippecanoe County Public Library, YMCA, YWCA and Willowstone Family Services.

Free haircuts will be available for children, thanks to the Anvil Salon Collective and Revival Barber & Beauty Academy. The Tippecanoe County Health Dept. will be onsite, as will the Tippecanoe County Public Library Bookmobile.

There will be drawings for door prizes throughout the event, thanks to Arni's, Bistro 501, Great Harvest Bread Co., Kürtőskalács Chimney Cake Bakery, Lafayette Master Chorale & Children's Choir, Main Street Books / Second Flight Books, Red Seven, Two Tulips and 21 Petals.

"We are excited to invite the community to attend this event and visit with our schools," said Cindy Gerlach, LSC Director of Communications & Community Engagement. "LSC has a variety of programs and educational opportunities that are designed to work with the varying needs of the families in our district. Drop in and see what our schools can offer your student."
