

Hein Nanda Kyaw, Class of 2024

“If I could sum up MCI in one word, it would be community. Everyone is willing to help each other out and lend a helping hand.”

On the academic side I think the teachers are willing to go above and beyond to help you and take that extra step to explain something and making sure you understand, which is especially helpful in a language that you're not always proficient in. The one memory from MCI that still stands with me is before the school year starts, all the dorm students get together and go to the lake or beach and go tubing, swim, play volleyball, and just hang out. That was the one core memory that I really have with the residential community here.

Activities: Cross Country, National Honor Society, Model UN

Favorite Memory: Dorm Trips

“If you're considering MCI and you find yourself on campus, get involved in as much as you can, I promise you're going to have fun.”
