

Spanish V AP Literature Syllabus

Course Description/Goals:

AP Spanish Literature is equivalent to a college level introductory survey course of literature written in Spanish. Students continue to develop their interpretive, interpersonal, and presentational skills in Spanish language as well as critical reading and analytical writing as they explore short stories, novels, plays, essays, and poetry from Spain, Latin America, and U.S. Hispanic authors along with other non-required texts. Learn more about this course on the College Board website. The district expectation is that the student will take the AP Spanish Literature and Culture exam.
