

AP Language and Composition: Summer Reading

Required Texts:

NOVEL. Oscar Wilde, The Picture of Dorian Gray

TEDTALK. Russell, Cameron. "Looks aren't everything. Believe me, I'm a model." Ted.

ARTICLES. See attached synthesis reading packet.

Assignment #1: Reading annotations for the novel

As you read The Picture of Dorian Gray, you should annotate the text. Annotations should be a mix of your interpretation of what is written in the text as well as your analysis of that interpretation. What does it mean and why is it significant?

Look for lines of particular beauty or wit - the best lines in the novel. Identify the best lines and write a short explanation why it was so particularly well-written. Additionally as you are reading, you should consider the larger question in the synthesis prompt. Does beauty matter? What does Wilde think?

You will be using The Picture of Dorian Gray in the beginning of the school year, so it is important that you have these annotations to help to guide you. Students should make a reasonable number of annotations: 10 on every page is too many; one every 100 pages is too few.

Assignment #2: Synthesis essay. Be certain to complete all 4 steps (including those attached in this doc).

Drafts may be emailed to your teacher for feedback.
All summer reading assignments are due the first day of school.

We recommend taking at least 30 minutes to plan before you write. Take your prewriting seriously. There is a writing guide and the rubric attached to these instructions.

Directions: Read the following prompt.

Complete each of the following required steps.

Step 1: Indicate (underline or highlight) the question you are to answer from within the prompt. Write the question in your own words.

Introduction

In The Picture of Dorian Gray, Oscar Wilde illustrates how society's reverence for physical beauty can shape privilege, morality, and power. Contemporary culture, too, often connects appearance with social advantages or disadvantages.

Assignment

Plan an essay that argues your position on the extent to which physical beauty impacts social and economic privilege.

Use appropriate evidence from The Picture of Dorian Gray, other works you have read, and/or your own observations and experiences to develop your argument.

Write the assignment in your own words:

Step 2: Based on the prompt, the main ideas to consider are the positive and negative aspects of aging.
Complete the t-chart with your original ideas.

Side 1	Side 2

Step 3: Read the sources and complete the chart. Use this to gather potential quotes and ideas.

The two sides of the question are...
Ideas and Examples for Side 1: Beauty positively impacts privilege	Ideas and Examples for Side 2: Other elements impact privilege OR Beauty has a negative impact
Based on the ideas and evidence in my t-chart, does beauty matter? Why or why not?

Step 4:

Your essay should be MLA formatted.

It should be its own doc.

We suggest about 40 minutes to an hour of writing.

Read over your work before you submit it.

We recommend about 20 minutes of revision and editing.

This will be graded using the marking period 1 AP Language synthesis rubric.

In a typed, MLA formatted essay that synthesizes at least three of your sources, write an essay that argues your position on the extent to which physical beauty impacts social and economic privilege.

Use appropriate evidence from The Picture of Dorian Gray, other works you have read, and/or your own observations and experiences to develop your argument.

You must use your textual references to support your ideas. Please refer to the sources as follows in your essay:

Source A: (Wilde¹) - The Picture of Dorian Gray

Source B: (Russell) - "Looks aren't everything. Believe me, I'm a model." Ted.

Source C: (Alam) - "The Socioeconomics of the Pretty Privilege." Psychology Today.

Source D: (Yong) - "Pretty People Really Do Have It Better," Time.

Source E: (Travers) - "A Psychologist Explains The 'Pretty Privilege' Paradox," Forbes.

Source F (Robson) - "The Surprising Downsides of Being Drop Dead Gorgeous," BBC.

The score reflects the quality of the essay as a whole - its content, its style, its mechanics. Students are rewarded for what they do well.

	AP SCORE	POINTS	EXPLANATION
Thesis	0	0	No defensible thesis
	.5	3	Thesis may be vague, superficial, weak. It may not take a clear position, equivocate, or summarize others' arguments. It may be a fact and not a claim. It might appear anywhere in the essay.
	1	6	Responds to the prompt with a defensible thesis according to the prompt and task, It does not restate or rephrase the prompt. It takes a clear position.
Evidence and Commentary	0	0	Simply restates thesis or summarizes provided source. May be incoherent or irrelevant, offer just opinion.
	1	6	Provides some evidence AND little or no commentary. In synthesis - only uses 2 sources. In rhetorical analysis - simply restates the ideas of the text.
	1.5	9	Improving.
	2	12	Provides relevant evidence from sources AND provides commentary; however it repeats, oversimplifies, or misinterprets the evidence. It may misunderstand, misrepresent, or overgeneralize complex ideas or sources. Sources will be provided for synthesis and rhetorical analysis, not for argument.
