	• Preliminary Milestones results are promising. Results will be released when available – may not be until October or November of next school year. • End of Year concerts have been great and the kids have had a good time. Mean Girl Jr. was a success. • 8th grade trip to 6 flags tomorrow with over 200 8th graders going and ceremonies are coming up. • Remote days have been offered for last few days of the year. • Derek Wright is our new AP replacing Cousin will officially start in July. • Device collection was completed yesterday. • Lifetouch will not be used next year. It will be Jostens who makes our yearbook. One difference is they don't do Spring pictures. • Question posed about the controversy about I-Ready. There will possibly be discussion for next year. Same with Canvas.
7:49 am	Superintendent Advisory Council Update • Discussion on schools closing/combining • 2 policies school have been highly discussed about community organization relations and purchasing of building modifications and the process of paying for this.	Advisory Council Representative
