ST. MARY'S ACADEMY

FOOD FOR Thought

TUITION ASSISTANCE LUNCHEON

WHAT/WHY:
Food for Thought, a St. Mary's Academy fundraising event, supports our mission to provide a Catholic, college-preparatory education to any young woman, regardless of financial circumstances. The 2026 event features a keynote by acclaimed international speaker, Liz Bohannon, a student testimonial, and opportunities to share our commitment to developing the next generation of woman leaders. In 2026-27, St. Mary's will award over $2 million in financial aid to nearly 47% of our families.

WHEN/WHERE:
Thursday, November 5, 2026 | 11:00 a.m. — 1:00 p.m.
Hilton Portland Downtown
921 SW 6th Ave., Portland, OR 97204

Over 500 attendees will join us for the luncheon, including SMA alumnae, parents, community members, business leaders, and supporters.

JOIN US!

KEYNOTE SPEAKER: Liz Bohannon
At 24, with no business degree and no plan, Liz packed a bag for Uganda and went on to build a multi-million-dollar, purpose-driven fashion brand that has created fair-wage jobs for thousands of women and sent hundreds of female scholars to university.

Named one of the nation's top three transformational leaders and recognized by Forbes as a top speaker, Liz has shared her story everywhere from Shark Tank to Good Morning America.

At Food for Thought, she'll share the mindset behind that leap: how to rethink failure, take the brave next step, and build a community of real purpose and impact. It's a message that speaks directly to who we are: women choosing courage over comfort and building lives in service of one another.
