La Salle College High School – Financial Aid Policies

La Salle College High School, a Catholic, independent, college preparatory school for young men of varied backgrounds, is conducted in the tradition of St. John Baptist de La Salle. Through a broad and balanced, human and Christian education, La Salle College High School guides each student in the development of his unique God-given talents and fosters a commitment to academic excellence, service, and leadership.

Inspired by the work of St. John Baptist de La Salle and the Brothers of the Christian Schools, La Salle College High School remains committed to offering access and opportunity for qualified students who would not be able to attend La Salle for financial reasons. Through the generosity of yearly and endowed giving, the Financial Aid Program exists to ensure educational opportunities exist for students demonstrating need. A La Salle College High School education requires a significant financial commitment.

La Salle College High School practices need-blind admission. The school does not use financial status as a consideration in determining a student's eligibility for admission. No decisions regarding tuition assistance are made until the admissions committee has met and an acceptance has been offered.

The family is solely responsible for submitting the paperwork on time annually. All families, new and returning, must meet deadlines to be considered for the first round of tuition assistance. The Financial Aid Process is protected with the utmost confidentiality and privacy by La Salle. We ask that families honor this process and not share grant information with any other party. We are unable to meet with any third party (i.e. accountants, lawyers, etc.) regarding your financial situation. Any case of dishonesty regarding income, assets, or the nature of unusual expenses, as well as enrollment status, is a violation of our financial aid policies and jeopardizes a student's grant.

In the case of a divorce or separation, La Salle requires both parents to file an application for tuition assistance. Both parents file separately with all supporting documentation. Please contact Mr. McCabe, Director of Admissions and Financial Aid (McCabeM@lschs.org), for guidance in handling unusual circumstances.
