

SUPERINTENDENT'S STUDENT SERVICES FAMILY ADVISORY COUNCIL (SSSFAC)

About the Council

The DeKalb County School District's (DCSD) Superintendent's Student Services Family Advisory Council (SSFAC) brings together parents and guardians of multilingual learners, and parents and guardians of students receiving Exceptional Education services. Council members work collaboratively to support the needs of all parents and students, ensuring that programs within the Division of Student Services are successful, and provide quality literacy, language, and content instruction that facilitates grade-level academic achievement.

Mission

The Student Services Family Advisory Council (SSFAC) is dedicated to ensuring all voices in DCSD and the community are heard and respected. Our goal is to elevate the voices of our communities by working together to improve communication, curriculum access, and procedures within the district through brainstorming solutions. By representing all DCSD families, it is our responsibility to engage with others in our community on a consistent basis to ensure that we can collectively identify the pulse of our stakeholders.

Who Should Join?

The council welcomes current DCSD parents and guardians who:

- Have a primary home language other than English
- Have a student receiving ESOL services
- Have a student with a disability receiving services or accommodations, including:
Individualized Education Program (IEP)/Section 504

Through the use of the District's Strategic Plan goals, the members will share family perspectives, experiences, and needs that will assist the district in improving programming, provide input and feedback on district and school family engagement matters, such as activities, plans and policies with the intent to improve student outcomes and help strengthen communication and family engagement.

Virtual Meeting tentative dates:

- September 16, 2026
- November 11, 2026
- February 10
- April 14
