

Guide for ESE Families Needing Help

School ESE Specialist

Contact the school's ESE Specialist for specific questions or concerns related to your child's IEP or disability. They will be able to connect you with other school or district staff based on the nature of the concern.

School-Based Administration

Contact school-based administration for concerns that require intervention from a higher level of authority such as staffing, discipline, bullying, and safety.

Regional Office or ESE Department

Elevate your concerns to either the Regional Office or ESE Department after you have given the school administration an opportunity to resolve your concerns, but are still not satisfied with the outcome. The Regional Offices provide direct oversight to the schools in their regions in collaboration with the ESE Department who provides direct support to all schools. (See second page for Schools by Region)

District ESE Parent Liaison

The role of the parent liaison is to help families bridge gaps at the local level. You may scan the QR code to the right to fill out a Parent/Community Member Communication Form.

Local Conflict Resolution Office

Broward County Public Schools offers Local Conflict Resolution for families that want to resolve concerns locally before exercising their parental rights for their student's education.
