Classroom Expectations

- Complete 40 hours of community service
- Pass all your classes! In order to receive an associate's degree, you MUST have a GPA of at least a 2.0. At ECHS@MC, we have higher expectations...and for a good reason. It will be difficult to transfer to a university with a 2.0 GPA. Rise Above! Go Beyond!
- Keep planners and grades up-to-date. These may be checked weekly.
- Have your college textbooks/notes with you daily.
- Respect self and others.
- Arrive on time.
- Arrive on time.
- Work hard & be nice.
- Come prepared with materials.
- Use appropriate and professional language.
- Keep the environment neat and clean. There are trash cans – Use them.
- Follow directives.
- Maintain a positive attitude.

Attendance Policy & Its Importance

Attendance is essential at Early College High School @ Midland College! We are on a block schedule, and therefore, an instructional day is the equivalent of two days of instruction. Please monitor your attendance. When you are absent, it is your responsibility to inform me so that we can make arrangements for you to receive the lesson.

Path CC IV Instructional Plan: First Semester

Please notify the school if your child will be absent. Frequent or extended absences may make it more difficult for your child to learn the necessary foundational skills that ensure student success this year and in future school years.

Learning Objectives

By the end of the first semester, students will be able to:

Using CCMR standards, students will develop skills such as:

- Register, review and take the SAT and/or ACT
