Camp Hill Middle School

2026-2027 Lunch Permission Form

Students in grades six through eight are eligible to leave the school building for lunch from 11:40 am – 12:23 pm under the following guidelines:

- The parent or guardian must sign the release form found at the bottom of this document and return the form to the Middle School Office. One form is required for each child.
- Parents or guardians are fully responsible for their child while the child is off school grounds. If your child is leaving the building during lunchtime, please ensure they are properly supervised. Please provide your students cell phone number or an emergency contact number below.
- Students must leave and return through the cafeteria.
- Students may not cross 11/15 for any reason during this period.
- All school rules apply during this time period.
- If you wish your student to only stay in the literacy garden, a form is still required to leave the building. It is also up to you as the parent to communicate this restriction with your student.
- Open Lunch is a privilege and may be revoked at any time by administration.
- The Student Code of Conduct applies to all students during lunchtime whether they are on or off campus.
