Course Overview (Instructional Plan)

This semester, your child will study the following topics in English Literature, based on Texas state standards (TEKS):

1. Unit 1: Inside the Nightmare

- Learning objectives: The student will summarize and paraphrase texts in ways that maintain meaning and logical order; make and correct or confirm predictions using text features; analyze how the author's diction and syntax contribute to the mood, voice, and tone of a text; create mental images to deepen understanding; and make connections to personal experiences, ideas in other texts, and society. TEKS: 5D; 4C; 8F; 4D; 4E
- Activities: Guided and independent reading, written responses to comprehension and analysis questions and exercises; journaling; written compositions; group discussions; quizzes and tests; and multimedia presentations.

2. Unit 2: Outsiders and Outcasts

- Learning objectives: Students will paraphrase and summarize texts in ways that maintain meaning and logical order; generate questions before, during, and after reading to deepen understanding and gain information; analyze the author's purpose, audience, and message within a text; evaluate the use of literary devices such as paradox, satire, and allegory to achieve specific purposes; evaluate how the author's diction and syntax contribute to the mood, voice, and tone of a text; make inferences and use evidence to support understanding; analyze relationships among characteristics of poetry; analyze the author's purpose, audience, and message within a text. TEKS: 5D; 4B; 8A; 8E; 8F; 4F; 7B; 8A
- Activities: Guided and independent reading, written responses to comprehension/analysis questions and exercises; journaling; written compositions; group discussions; quizzes and tests; and multimedia presentations.

3. Unit 3: All That Glitters

- Learning objectives: Students will paraphrase and summarize texts in ways that maintain meaning and logical order; make connections to personal experiences, ideas in other texts, and society; analyze how historical and cultural settings influence characterization, plot, and theme across texts; use print or digital resources to clarify and validate understanding of technical or discipline-based vocabulary; and monitor comprehension and make adjustments as needed when understanding breaks down. TEKS: 5D; 4E; 6D; 2A; 4I
- Activities: Guided and independent reading, written responses to comprehension/analysis questions and exercises; journaling; written compositions; group discussions; quizzes and tests; and multimedia presentations.

4. Additional Skills

- Developing critical thinking, note-taking, and time management.
