What is 4-H?

Exploring and discovering, encouraging and challenging, that's what Georgia 4-H is all about. As a program of the University of Georgia College of Agricultural and Environmental Sciences Cooperative Extension System, 4-H is part of the nationwide Extension network.

Georgia 4-H provides opportunities for youth to learn by doing in the focus areas of agriculture, science, civic engagement, leadership, health, and wellness. Youth can participate in 4-H in every Georgia county through in-school and after-school programs, community events, project work, and summer camping experiences. Adult mentors provide guidance and encourage 4-H'ers to take on proactive leadership roles as they work to make the best better.

Georgia 4-H

Mission:

The mission of Georgia 4-H is to assist youth in acquiring knowledge, developing life skills, and forming attitudes that will enable them to become self-directing, productive and contributing members of society.

Vision:

To create a world in which youth and adults learn, grow, and work together as catalysts for positive change.

Pledge:

I pledge my head to clearer thinking, My heart to greater loyalty, My hands to larger service, and my health to better living, for my club, my community, my country, and my world!

Core Values:

Agriculture, Citizenship, Communication, Environment, Family and Consumer Sciences, and Leadership.
