Requested Action

School Board Recognition of FCCLA State, National Winners

Summary Explanation and Background

Congratulations to our Cherokee High School students who earned gold medals at the Family, Career and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA) national competition this summer in Washington, D.C.

Senior Alaina Emmett earned a national gold medal in the career investigation competition, following a first-place at state. Class of 2026 graduate Bailey German earned a national gold medal in leadership and was named a Top 10 national finalist, following her first-place state win. Carmen Andrews is their Career Pathway teacher and the school's FCCLA sponsor.

More than 4,300 students competed at the national event in 30-plus events connected to family and consumer sciences careers.
