Testing of independent homeschool students is required in grades 5, 7, and 9, and is coordinated through the local school district. A letter will be mailed to the homes of qualifying students with guidance for state testing procedures. Students will test in the local public school which the student would otherwise attend at no charge.

NAEP-National Assessment of Educational Progress selects a small subset of schools for national and international assessments. Districts will be notified of selected schools in the Summer of 2026.
