

Nondiscrimination Policy and Grievance Procedure

FWCS does not tolerate the unjust or prejudicial treatment of any individual or group's actual or perceived race, color or ethnic group, religion or religious practice, national origin, sex, gender identity, sexual orientation, political affiliation, age, marital status, veteran status, disability or any other basis prohibited by state or federal law. The immediate remedy for any act of discrimination shall be to end it, treat the individual equitably, and, as much as practically possible, to eradicate any effects of discrimination. Discipline should be imposed where appropriate.

Grievance Procedure

1. Coordinators. Coordinators oversee the implementation of this procedure.

- School principals serve as the coordinators for civil rights grievances related to students in their buildings.

2. Reporting. The employee, student or patron alleging discrimination shall notify the appropriate coordinator described above (building level or corporation level). Complaints do not need to be made in writing and may be made anonymously, but coordinators will be better able to address the violation if that are provided specific information about the alleged act or omission and the parties involved. FWCS will take care to keep the identity of the complainant confidential if that is his or her request, but may not be able to guarantee anonymity. Complaints may be submitted online via Onflo (formerly Let's Talk) and will be assigned to the appropriate coordinator.

3. Investigation. The coordinator shall initiate investigation of the circumstances of the complaint within seven calendar days of the receipt of the written complaint. The coordinator shall render a decision within fourteen calendar days of the receipt of the written complaint. The decision shall be in writing to the complainant if the complaint was received in writing. Reasonable extensions of the deadlines in this Procedure shall be allowed upon request by either party.
