All About Ms. Molnar

This will be my seventh year teaching fifth grade. My husband and I have two kids, Eva and Peter, who will be high school seniors this year. I enjoy reading, trying new foods, swimming, and spending time with friends and family. I speak fluent Hungarian and love to travel. So far, I visited five continents and hope to make it to all seven. Some of my favorite books are Out of My Mind, Restart, and Front Desk because they helped me consider new perspectives and become more empathetic. Can't wait to learn about all your favorites when we meet in September. 🌻🌎📚😄
