Since its founding in 1950, The Howard School has educated students ages five through 12th grade who have diagnosed language-based learning differences such as dyslexia, dyscalculia, dysgraphia, and expressive/receptive language delays.

Located in the heart of the City of Atlanta, Howard is a diverse community of approximately 300 Learners.

CURRICULUM

High School students study a college preparatory curriculum that enables them to learn confidently and become self-advocates for their own learning. With small class sizes, students can be highly interactive with teachers and benefit from Assistive Technology support.

Our school year is divided into two 18-week semesters, separated by a mini-mester in early January where students can explore a variety of elective courses.

GRADING

Howard reports GPA on a standard 4.0 scale but neither ranks students nor weighs courses.
