Description: College Prep math will be using the online Texas College Bridge preparatory classes. The course is a TSI exemption for more than 100 colleges and universities in the state of Texas. Students will be self-paced for the program with supplemental instruction. To receive this exemption the course must be completed with a standard of 90% within the program.

Daily Material: Chromebook issued by SAISD (and charger), earbuds that have a chord to plug into your chromebook, pencil, and paper (spiral or notebook).

Grading: Students must complete the program and will be graded as a participation pass/fail until completion. Students will only be able to work during class and tutorial times. Participation grades will be taken weekly and determine eligibility.

Tutorials:

Anytime your child falls behind in the program or is struggling they should attend tutorials for help and support. Please understand times listed above can change and students will be notified. Other times are available by appointment only.

Central also provides a Math Tutorial night every Monday from 5 to 7 pm in Newton Hall room 116. Students MUST communicate if they plan to attend.

The Student Code of Conduct, in accordance with House Bill 1481, prohibits the use of electronic communication devices, including cell phones, smartwatches, wireless/bluetooth earbuds and headphones, paging devices, tablets, or gaming devices while on campus during the school day.CHS faculty members are expected to confiscate all devices. SAISD consequence policy will be followed if there is an electronic device related issue.

Honor code Academic dishonesty includes cheating or copying the work of another student, plagiarism, and unauthorized communication between students during an examination. The determination that a student has engaged in academic dishonesty will be based on the judgment of the classroom teacher or other supervising professional employee, taking into consideration written materials, observation, or information from students. A student found to have engaged in academic dishonesty will be subject to disciplinary penalties per the Student Code of Conduct, as well as, academic penalties. Students who have been found to have violated the community trust as expressed in the student code of conduct will receive no credit (zero) on the assignment on which the violation occurred. Students may also be referred to the office for appropriate disciplinary measures.

 COLLEGE BRIDGE WILL BE RESET IF HONOR CODE IS VIOLATED ***
