

Money Matters

Personal Financial Literacy/Dollars & Sense

Contact Information:

Madisen Honea, Room: Sousa 118

(325) 659-3434 ext. 290

madisen.honea@saisd.org

Conf. Period: 1st (8:20-9:09am)

Course Objective:

Students will have the opportunity to learn how to become financially responsible, including how to keep themselves out of debt, how to balance a checkbook, and more.

Grading Policy:

Tests/Projects: 60%

Daily Work/Participation: 40%

- 10 minor grades and 3 major grades per 9 weeks
-  San Angelo ISD Grading Guidelines

Final Exams:

Final exams will be based on the material covered throughout the semester.

Tutorials:

Tuesday: Morning/Bobcat Block

Wednesday: Morning/Bobcat Block/Afternoon

Thursday: Bobcat Block

- Communicate and schedule with Coach Honea before hand
- Bobcat block is the safe option due to me being absent a lot for sports

Make-Up Policy:

Number of days absent plus one.

Late Work:

Students will have THREE days to submit an assignment after its due date. Students will be given a 10-point deduction per day late. No work will be accepted after 4 days. Students will be given reminders when assignments are late.

Classroom Policy:

District Policy: Electronic Device Policy

- Phones cannot be used during school hours
- In the classroom phones must be stored in backpack
- If phone is visible and being used, it will be taken and turned into office

Tardies:

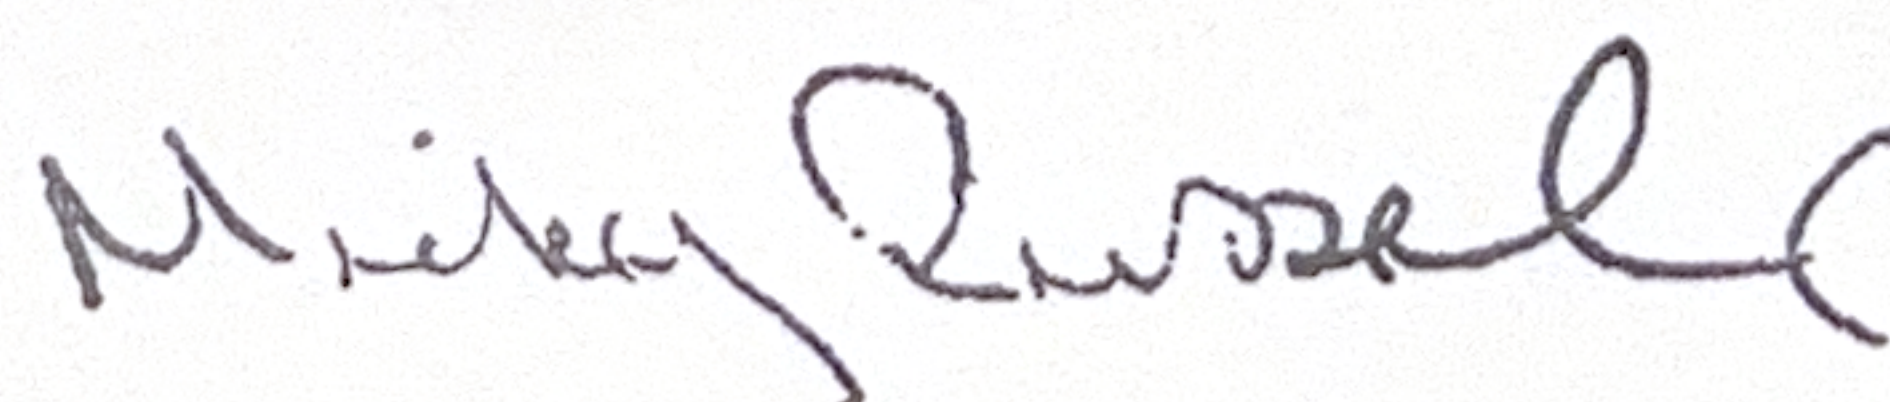

If a student shows up late to class without a pass, they will be counted tardy.

- 3 Tardies - Parent Contact by Teacher
- 5 Tardies - Teacher Detention & Parent Contact
- Any two after that will result in parent contact and referral

Classroom Behavior:

Students are expected to do the following every day:

- Come to class on time and prepared.

Money Matters

Personal Financial Literacy/Dollars & Sense

- Be respectful to the teacher/ each other.
- Participate in all class activities.
- No phones during school hours
- Ask the teacher for work if you know you will be absent.
- Come in for tutorials if you are struggling with something.
- Plan with the teacher to correct failing work.
- Do not become a distraction to those around you.
- Obey all school rules listed in the student code of conduct.

Recommended Materials:

- Blue/black ink pens or pencils
- Paper
- Calculator

Corrections for Failing Grades:

Tests/Projects: Students will be given one week to correct any failing test grades. It is the student's responsibility to attend tutorials to correct the test. Students will have the opportunity to bring a failing test grade up to 70%. (Note: Correction does not mean that they will automatically receive full credit – students still have to do the work!)

Daily Work: Students will be given one week to correct any failing daily grade. It is the student's responsibility to attend tutorials to correct the daily grade. Students will have the opportunity to bring a failing daily grade up to a 100%. (Note: Correction does not mean that they will automatically receive full credit – students still have to do the work!)

By joining this class, students have an opportunity to gain knowledge that will help them throughout the rest of their lives. This class will have an impact on their fiscal presence in the future. It is expected that students will behave maturely in this class so that everyone will be able to learn how to be financially successful.

Feel free to contact Coach Honea with any questions, comments, or concerns.

Sic' Em!!

I acknowledge that I have read and understand the above syllabus.

Student Signature

Parent Signature