About Nuevas Fronteras Spanish Immersion

Nuevas Fronteras Spanish Immersion Elementary School (NFSI) serves students in kindergarten through fifth grades and is part of SoWashCo Schools. NFSI is an inclusive dual language immersion elementary school and is the beginning of SoWashCo Schools K-12 Spanish Immersion Pathway.

- NFSI is committed to providing an equitable, multilingual, and multicultural education that prepares students to excel globally through high academic standards and best practices in language acquisition, biliteracy, and cultural competence.
- The school emphasizes empathy, kindness, and respect to create an inclusive and supportive environment where every student feels valued and celebrated.
- NFSI ensures equity by tailoring instructional approaches to meet the diverse needs of students, providing the resources and support necessary for each individual to reach their full potential.
- Innovative teaching methods at NFSI foster creativity, critical thinking, and collaboration, enabling students to connect complex linguistic and cultural concepts with real-world applications.
- Strong community engagement at NFSI promotes collaboration with families and stakeholders, reinforcing a shared commitment to student success and inclusivity.
