Treasurer's Report

- Current balance: $18,486.91
 - Limited movement of funds this past month
 - Approximately $500.00 deposited thanks to Loggers, Toppers, and Spiritwear
 - $162.50 deducted due to signage

Principal's Report

- Sand Lake is getting a new chiller system and the roof is being worked on, currently, resulting in Mrs. Olsen (formerly Ms. Franzen) being displaced, locationally, for approximately two weeks
- Four new staff members will be starting next week (two in Special Education and two in second grade)
- All staff return to work 8/17/26
 - PTG will stock the lounge with snacks (thank you, Anna!)
- This year's PBIS theme is "Learning Together at the Lake"
 - Mindy will do a bulletin board (thank you, Mindy)
- Popsicles on the Playground for new 4Kers and kindergarteners will be 8/17/26 from 4:00-5:30
 - Emily will bring dot stickers and chalk (thank you, Emily)

- The popsicles are ready

-Earlier this year, PTG discussed paying teachers' way for the Eagle Bluff field trip; today we made the decision to move forward with this plan

Old Business

-We have a new Employer Identification Number (EIN)

-Fun Run updates

- Updates will come through the Band App for all Holmen School District parent-teacher groups
- Laura is creating a survey for the students for shirt selection (thank you, Laura)
- People should work on calling regarding sponsorship; there is a script
- Mr. Meyers will talk to Sand Lake teachers regarding a whole-school prize for meeting a goal
- The fundraising goal is set at $20,000

-A comment box may be put into the lounge (who is going to do this?)

-Book vending machine has been ordered; a ribbon cutting will be held

-Food trucks are confirmed for Open House; coupons are done and printed

New Business

-PTG photo will be taken at September meeting

-PTG will push Spiritwear at the beginning of the school year

- Consider flyers at upcoming events (like POP and/or Open House)

-Childcare will be set up for all 2026/2027 PTG Meetings (Heidi will do this)
