

HOW CAN I BE INVOLVED?

Families can do the following to become more involved in the education of their student:

- encouraging attendance;
- monitoring grades and schoolwork in Skyward;
- attending family events and meetings; and
- reading school/classroom newsletters or websites that contain examples of learning activities families can do with students at home.

