Eligibility: To qualify, a student must anticipate an absence of greater than five (5) consecutive school days.
FCPS Policy 08.1312

Special Education: Pursuant to KRS 158.033(5), for students with disabilities, the admissions and release committee shall be responsible for placement decisions regarding home or hospital instruction in accordance with the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, 20 U.S.C. sec. 1400 et seq. The home or hospital instruction shall be provided pursuant to the individual education program as determined by the admissions and release committee. The ARC chairperson shall provide written notice of home/hospital placement to the local Home Hospital Program Director and Director of Pupil Personnel (DPP) for purposes of program enrollment using the form in section IV of this application. 702 KAR 7:150.

Medical Verification: Pursuant to KRS 159.030(2)(a), before granting an exemption from compulsory attendance, the board of education of the district in which the child resides shall require submission to the board of satisfactory evidence in the form of a signed statement of a properly licensed physician, advanced practice registered nurse, physician's assistant, psychologist, psychiatrist, or qualified mental health professional as defined in KRS 202A.011 responsible for diagnosing and treating the child, stating that the diagnosed condition of the child prevents or renders inadvisable attendance at school and requires home or hospital instruction. If the condition is mental health related, then the signed statement shall be completed by a qualified mental health professional as defined in KRS 202A.011.

Extended Placement: Pursuant to KRS 159.030(2)(b), any child who is excused from school attendance more than six (6) months shall have two (2) signed statements from a combination of two (2) of the professional persons in accordance with paragraph (a) of this subsection, except that this requirement shall not apply to a child whose signed statement certifies that the student has a chronic physical condition that prevents or renders inadvisable attendance at school and is unlikely to substantially improve within one (1) year.

Intermittent Placement: A student with a recurring condition, which results in periods in which the need for home or hospital instruction is intermittent and the student is able to attend school for short periods, may be exited and reentered on home or hospital instruction, and the following shall apply:

- (a) Initial approval by the Review Committee shall be required;
- (b) The Review Committee shall review the need for an alternative schedule of services based on verification by the professional statement in the application for home or hospital instruction of the need for intermittent services;
- (c) If a health professional who completed the initial application for a student to be served on home or hospital determines the student needs additional time for services, the health professional shall submit a written statement, either mailed or faxed, to the Director of Pupil Personnel, requesting additional time up to two (2) weeks for services and provide a brief explanation for the extension;
- (d) The Review Committee shall meet to review this extension and either approve or deny the request for an extension, prior to provision of any extended services;
- (e) The Review Committee shall review intermittent placement at least every six (6) months, and at that time a statement from a second professional, shall be required by the Review Committee for continued program eligibility; and
- (f) The parent or guardian shall notify the principal/Home Hospital Program Director or Director of Pupil Personnel prior to the need for school reentry or to exit to home or hospital instruction.

Pregnancy is not considered a physical or health impairment in and of itself, and the nature and extent of any complication shall be delineated prior to consideration of home or hospital instruction for this condition. 702 KAR 7:150.

For students receiving home or hospital instruction pursuant to a determination by a Home or Hospital Review Committee, eligibility shall cease if the student works, plays sports or participates in extracurricular activities, except as provided for students with a 504 plan. 702 KAR 7:150.

For students with a 504 plan, eligibility for home or hospital instruction shall not cease if the student works, plays sports or participates in extracurricular activities if participation in work, sports or extracurricular activities is consistent with the student's 504 plan. 702 KAR 7:150

Annual Review: Pursuant to KRS 159.030(2)(c), exemptions of any student under the provisions of home hospital placement shall be reviewed annually with the evidence required being updated.

RELEASE OF INFORMATION

I understand that if the Home/Hospital Review Committee makes the determination of placement for this student, they may request a review of the information provided on these forms by local health personnel. I hereby authorize this committee to have access to pertinent information regarding this request. I understand that if the Admissions and Release Committee makes the determination of placement for this student, they will have access to all pertinent information regarding this request.
