Back-to-School Spirit Week Grade Level Competition. Wow! After yesterday's bowling challenge, our spirit points skyrocketed! The sixth and eighth graders kept getting strike after strike. Because of this, the sixth graders have taken the lead. They are in first place with 497 points. The seventh graders have moved into second place with 432 points, and the eighth graders are in third place with 377 points. However, there is no need to worry. Everything can change today with our Sports Day dress-up and our lunchtime Homerun Challenge. First period teachers, please take the spirit count and complete the form that Mrs. Wells emailed to you this morning. Also, be sure to come out to the Wiffleball Field today at lunch to earn even more spirit points for your grade level. Don't forget that tomorrow is the last day of Spirit Week. Be sure to show as much Cougar Pride as possible by wearing Carmel gear or lots of red!

Congratulations to our three finalists for the Cougar Bob Mascot Challenge! Adam Camarillo, Kira Abraham, and Isaac Macey will represent their grade level on Friday in front of the entire school to see who will represent CMS at the Union Game Halftime Show on August 29th. It will be exciting to see which of these three students will show the most Cougar Pride!
