SEAHAWK SPOTLIGHT - CONGRATULATIONS, ANTHONY RICKARDS!

Franklin County Schools junior earns statewide recognition for STEM excellence

Anthony Rickards
Franklin - Franklin County School

Anthony Rickards has been selected as Franklin County's Sunshine State Scholar, a prestigious honor recognizing one outstanding 11th-grade student from each school district across Florida. The Sunshine State Scholars program highlights students who demonstrate exceptional achievement in science, technology, engineering, and mathematics, as well as leadership, innovation, and a commitment to future contributions in these fields. Rickards' selection reflects not only his academic excellence, but also his character, discipline, and dedication to learning. He represents Franklin County Schools with distinction and exemplifies the promise and potential found across the district. Franklin County Schools proudly congratulates Rickards on this outstanding achievement. His recognition as a Sunshine State Scholar is a point of pride for our schools and community, and we look forward to his continued success as he advances as a leader and scholar.
