

Save The Dates!

NGSS SCIENCE SERIES

Environmental Literacy Across the Curriculum

For Marin County K-12 Teachers

Designed for both new and experienced teachers, this series offers practical tools, guided experience, and opportunities to build confidence, expand instructional practice, and collaborate with colleagues. Teachers will develop assessments (aligned with curriculum) that model three-dimensional, performance-based tasks featured in CAST.

Series Dates

Elementary Series

-  October 22, 2026
8:30-3:30pm
-  December 1, 2026
4:00-6:00pm
-  March 9, 2027
8:30-3:30pm
-  April 27, 2027
4:00-6:00pm

Middle School Series

-  October 13, 2026
8:30-3:30pm
-  December 1, 2026
4:00-6:00pm
-  March 2, 2027
8:30-3:30pm
-  April 27, 2027
4:00-6:00pm

High School Series

-  October 6, 2026
8:30-3:30pm
-  December 1, 2026
4:00-6:00pm
-  February 23, 2027
8:30-3:30pm
-  April 27, 2027
4:00-6:00pm

Meeting locations MCOE and The Carlisle Center, at Redwood High School. See registration page for more details.

Vertical Articulation Network meetings for all participants on December 1, 2026 and April 27, 2027.

Registration Included for first 15 registrants!

California Science Educator Conference | November 6-8, 2026 | Sacramento, CA

Space is Limited Register Today!

<https://forms.gle/KCvE7c8SLzR9XAYC8>

Participants May Earn 1.5 CEUs

Questions or Registration Support
Tiffany Greenfield
tgreenfield@marinschools.org

FREE for Marin County K-12 Teachers This series is offered at no cost through funding from the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration and CAL-MSCS Grant.

