Title I School-Parent Compact

What is a School-Parent Compact for Achievement?

A School-Parent Compact for Achievement is an agreement that parents, students, and teachers develop together. It explains how parents and teachers will work together to ensure all our students reach grade-level standards.

CMS Compact:

- Link initiatives to goals of the school improvement plan
- Focus on student learning skills
- Describe how teachers will help students develop those skills using high-quality instruction
- Share strategies parents can use at home
- Explain how teachers and parents will communicate about student progress
- Describe opportunities for parents to volunteer, observe, and participate in the classroom

Conniston Middle School strives to foster a learning community dedicated to optimizing achievement and fostering excellence for all.

At Conniston Middle School, we commit to:

- Being prepared and actively engaged in school activities
- Showing respect towards others
- Taking responsibility for our learning and behavior

Establishing Collaborative Connections:

Parent-teacher conferences are scheduled at 7:30 a.m. and can be arranged through grade-level counselors.

Title I Parent Nights are slated to occur three times throughout the academic year, offering virtual, evening sessions for convenience.

Mark your calendars for the monthly SAC Meeting every 3rd Tuesday of the month.

Keeping You Informed About Student Progress:

Conniston Middle School values ongoing and interactive communication with families regarding students' learning journey. Here are the multiple avenues through which you can anticipate staying updated:

- Progress Reports are issued every 4.5 weeks
- Quarterly Report Cards distributed
- Regular updates are provided on the school website and marquee
- Grades consistently updated on the Student Information System (SIS)
- Communication is facilitated through emails, phone calls, or ParentLink
- Requested conferences scheduled by appointment with grade-level school counselors

Our Goals for Student Success

District Goals:

In The Classroom:

We value strong connections with families and strive to keep them informed and engaged. Here's how we'll achieve this:

- Enhance the percentage of students achieving proficiency or above in all subject areas on FAA, SSA, EOC, and FAST assessments
- Develop and implement educational opportunities tailored to each student's maximum potential
- Establish support systems for students, staff, and families to optimize their performance
- Employ instructional and administrative staff committed to our mission and goals

Conniston Middle School Goals:

- Elevate academic performance in Reading/ELA, Mathematics, Science, and Social Studies to meet or surpass FAA, SSA, EOC, and FAST benchmarks for all students
- Reduce the incidence of students missing more than 5 days of school
- Encourage increased parental involvement in their child's educational journey
- Diminish the number of disciplinary referrals
- Enhance teacher effectiveness through professional development

- We'll utilize SIS, the school website, and ParentLink to send reminders about absences and upcoming assessments, facilitating effective communication between school and home
- Provide regular updates on class assignments and activities through Google Classroom, ensuring transparency and providing additional practice opportunities
- School newsletters will cover upcoming topics and provide examples to equip parents with tools to support their child's learning at home
- After-school tutoring sessions will be available throughout the week, catering to various subject areas

At Home:

At Conniston Middle School, parents collaborate with staff to develop strategies to support their children at home.

Here are some key ways parents can contribute:

- Monitor your child's attendance to ensure regular participation in class
- Encourage completion of both classroom and homework assignments
- Check the SIS Portal or Google Classroom weekly to stay updated on any missing assignments
- Engage your child in discussions about what they're learning in class
- Review Progress Reports and Report Cards together, discussing areas of strength and areas for improvement
- Make time to attend Parent-Teacher Conferences, Open Houses, and Title I Family workshops to stay actively involved in your child's education

Conniston Middle School Students

At Conniston Middle School, students collaborate with staff and parents to develop strategies for achieving success in school. Here are some ideas to strengthen the connection between learning at home and school:

- Come to class on time and be prepared with all necessary materials
- Actively engage and participate in all class assignments and activities
- Regularly monitor grades and progress on the Student Information System (SIS)
- Don't hesitate to reach out to teachers or family members if help is needed
- Take advantage of school tutoring sessions when available
- Dedicate time daily to study multiplication and division facts
- Review ELA, Science, and Social Studies notes consistently each night
- Keep track of assignments by writing them down, completing homework daily, and submitting it on time
- Make a commitment to complete any make-up or missing work promptly
- Maintain an organized binder to stay on top of class materials and assignments
