

Good morning, Condors! Here are your Daily Announcements with Zaira and Arath.

Please stand for the Pledge of Allegiance.

Ready, begin: I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the republic for which it stands: one nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

Please be seated.

- Women's Equality Day will be observed on Wednesday, August 26, 2026. It marks the 106th anniversary of the 1920 certification of the 19th Amendment, which guaranteed American women the constitutional right to vote. Please join us in wearing either purple, white or yellow on Wednesday to mark this important day in history. Purple: Symbolizes loyalty, constancy to purpose, and steadfastness to the cause of justice and dignity. White: Represents purity, high-mindedness, and the integrity of the equal rights purpose. Gold or Yellow: Represents light, life, and the guiding torch of freedom this color was inspired by the golden sunflower symbols used in early U.S. suffrage campaigns
