

Are you being safe online?

Internet Boundaries

1. So what IS appropriate to share?

2. Where should we use the internet?

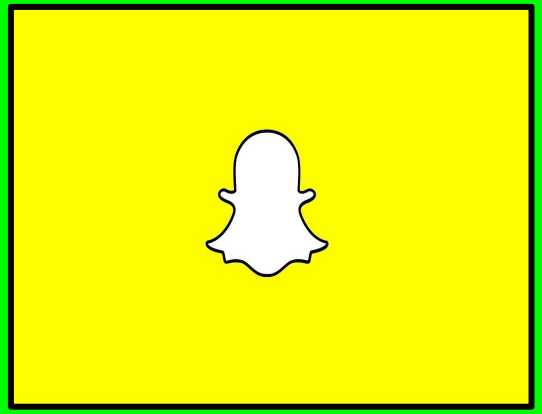

Are your accounts private?

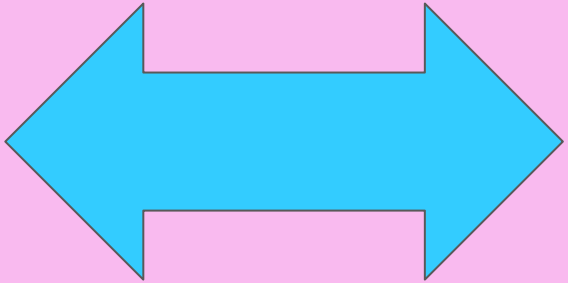

Are you following your parents' rules for social media?

Are you respecting yourself and others through your actions on the internet?

Should I Share ?

A picture of you in your front yard with your whole house behind you.

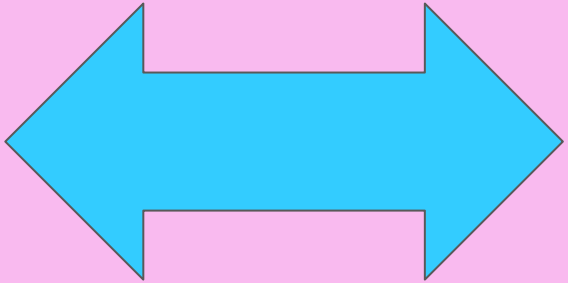

YES! You should share it!

No! You should NOT share it!

Should I Share ?

A picture of yourself in a school soccer jersey?

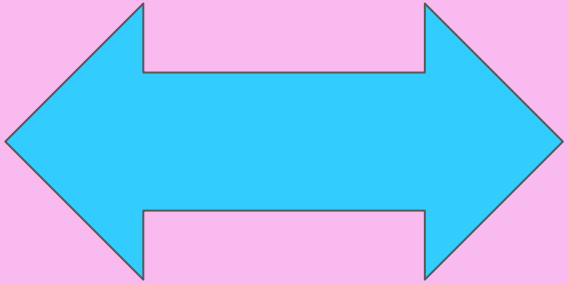

YES! You should share it!

No! You should NOT share it!

Should I Share ?

A website for free online radio asks for your home address.

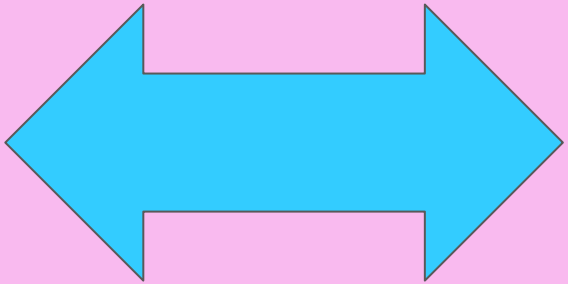

YES! You should share it!

No! You should NOT share it!

Should I Share ?

A friend asks where you live, so she can bike to your house after school

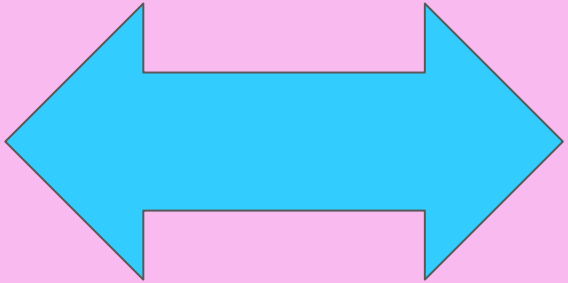

YES! You should share it!

No! You should NOT share it!

Should I Share ?

Vacation photos on social media of you and your family at the pool?

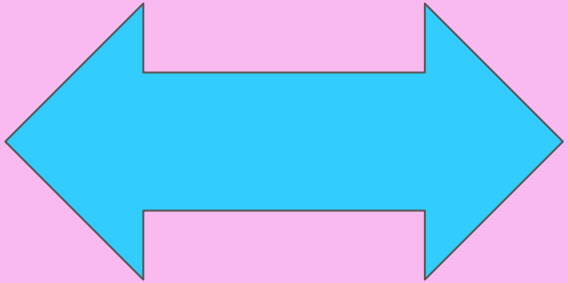

YES! You should share it!

No! You should NOT share it!

Should I Share ?

The school counselor asks about your hobbies and your family

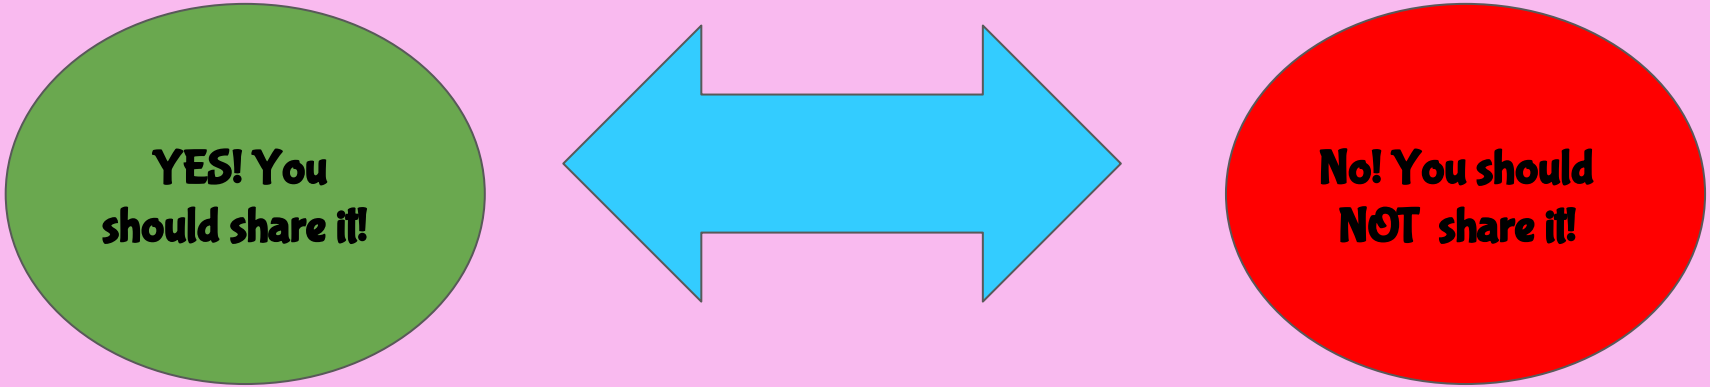

YES! You should share it!

No! You should NOT share it!

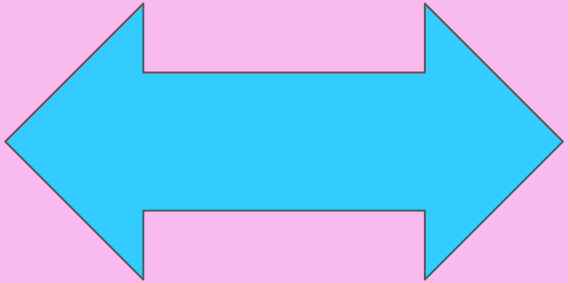

Should I Share ?

A pin of the concert that you are attending?

Should I Share ?

A unknown number texts you and asks about your school day

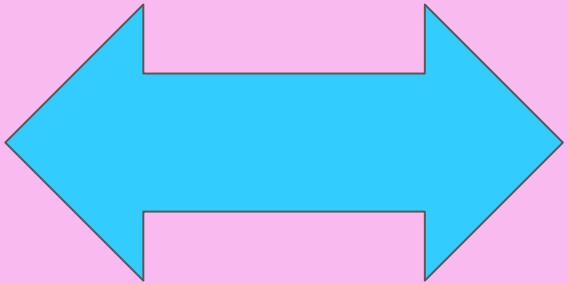

YES! You should share it!

No! You should NOT share it!

Should I Share ?

On xbox, someone keeps trying to ask about what other games you play and where you go to school

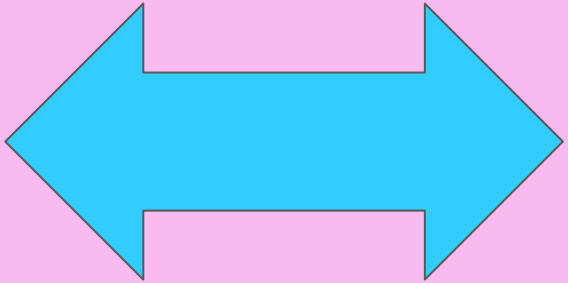

YES! You should share it!

No! You should NOT share it!

Should I Share ?

A picture on Snapchat of your teacher in the classroom?

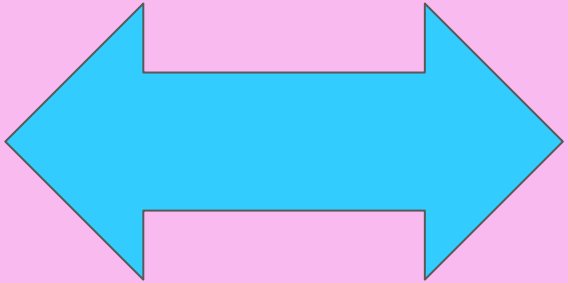

YES! You should share it!

No! You should NOT share it!

Should I Share ?

My parents ' credit card number to get more player points?

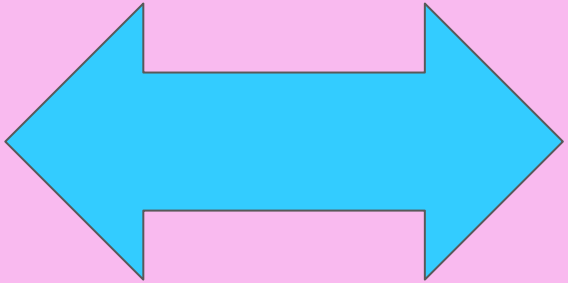

YES! You should share it!

No! You should NOT share it!

Should I Share ?

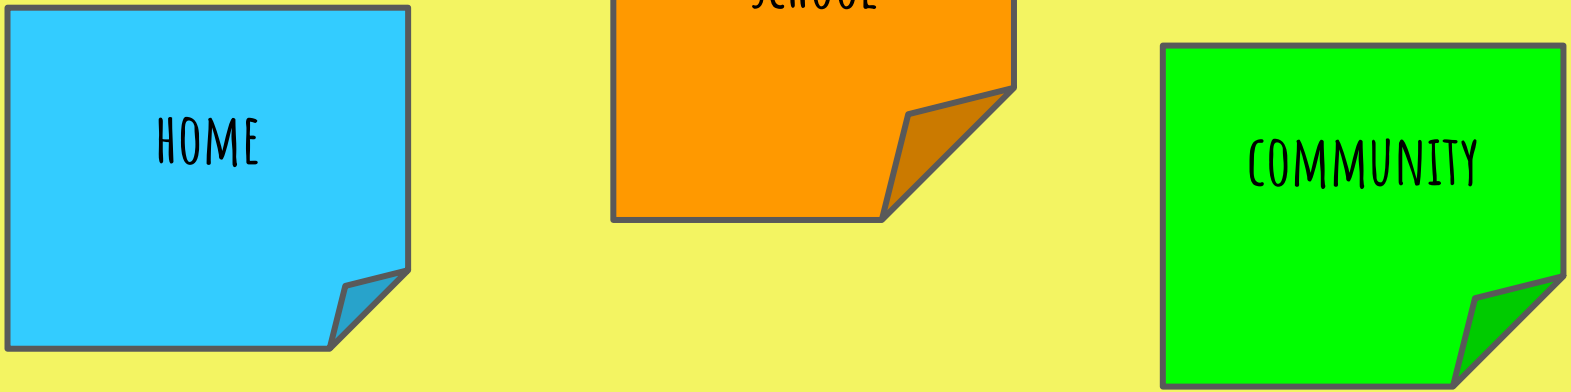

The lunch monitor asks for your student number

YES! You should share it!

No! You should NOT share it!

Where should we use the internet?

Community

Where would it not be safe to use Wi–Fi?
Drag and drop the appropriate cloud(s).

Home

Where are appropriate places to talk, take pictures and play games online?

School

Where would it be appropriate to use your social media accounts at school?

Email Etiquette

THE SUBJECT LINE

- Let the receiver know what the email is about in a few words
- Use keywords
  - not a whole sentence
  - save details for the actual email
  - names aren't necessary here
- Include class name when emailing teachers
- Example to avoid:
  - "I'm confused about the homework."=too many words and not enough info
- Better option:
  - "5th Period ELA HW Question"

THE MESSAGE

- Start with a formal greeting:
  - a welcome; message of kindness
  - examples: Hello, Hi, Dear, Good morning, Good afternoon, Greetings
  - Use proper capitalization*

- Format= greeting title name comma [enter]
  - Dear NAME,
  - Hi NAME,

Write a Polite & Clear Message

- Use complete, coherent sentences
- Check for spelling errors
- Use proper capitalization & punctuation
- Do not use all caps or exclamation points to stress importance
- Stick to the point
- Do not abbreviate here

SIGN OFF

- Use a salutation aka an acknowledgement of the person's time or help
- Format= closing remark comma [enter]
- Examples:
    - All the best,
    - Kind regards,
    - Sincerely,
    - Thank you,
    - Thanks again,
    - With appreciation,
    - With gratitude,
    - Cheers,
    - Many thanks,
    - Warmly,
    - Yours truly,

INCLUDE YOUR SIGNATURE

- Write your first and last name after the salutation
- Emojis are informal:
  - only use if appropriate
  - one is enough!

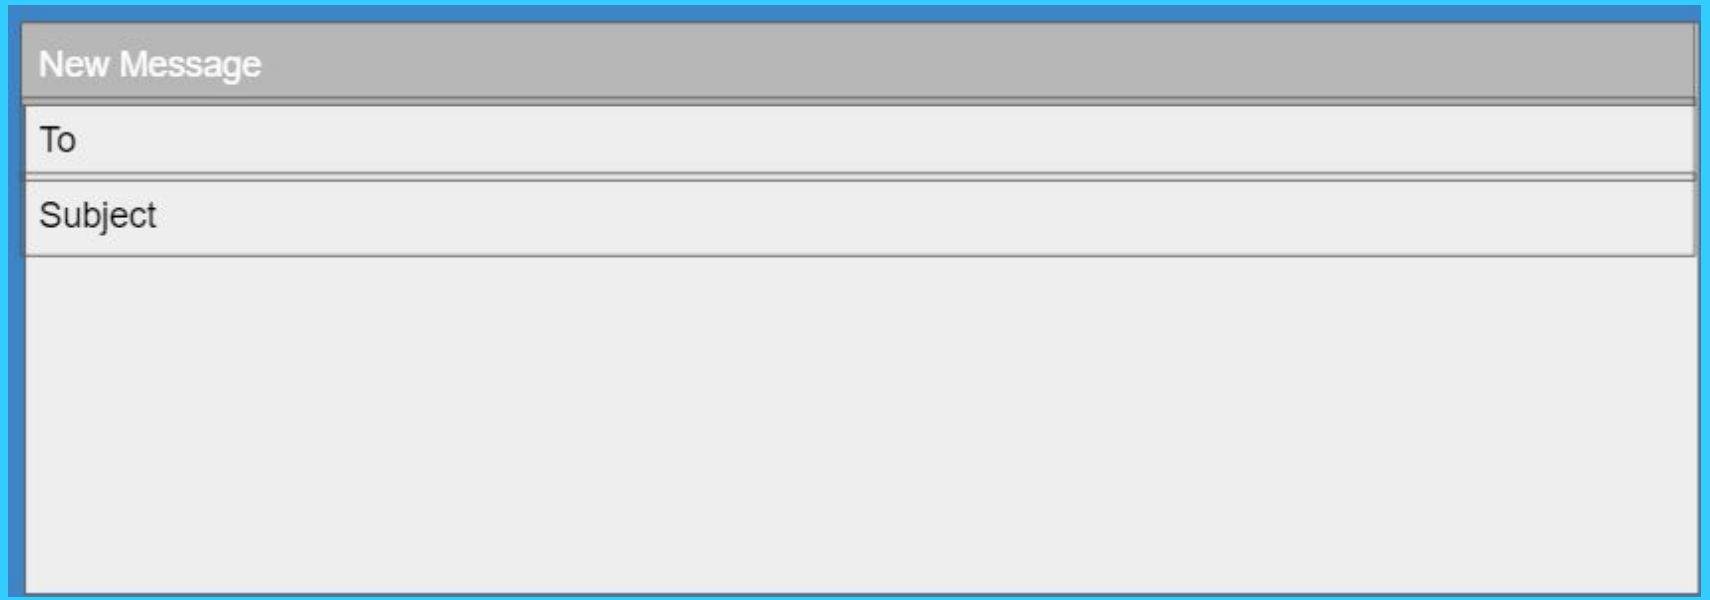

EMAIL #1

Pretend you have a homework question about the following assignment. Email your teacher for help.

ELA 3RD PERIOD

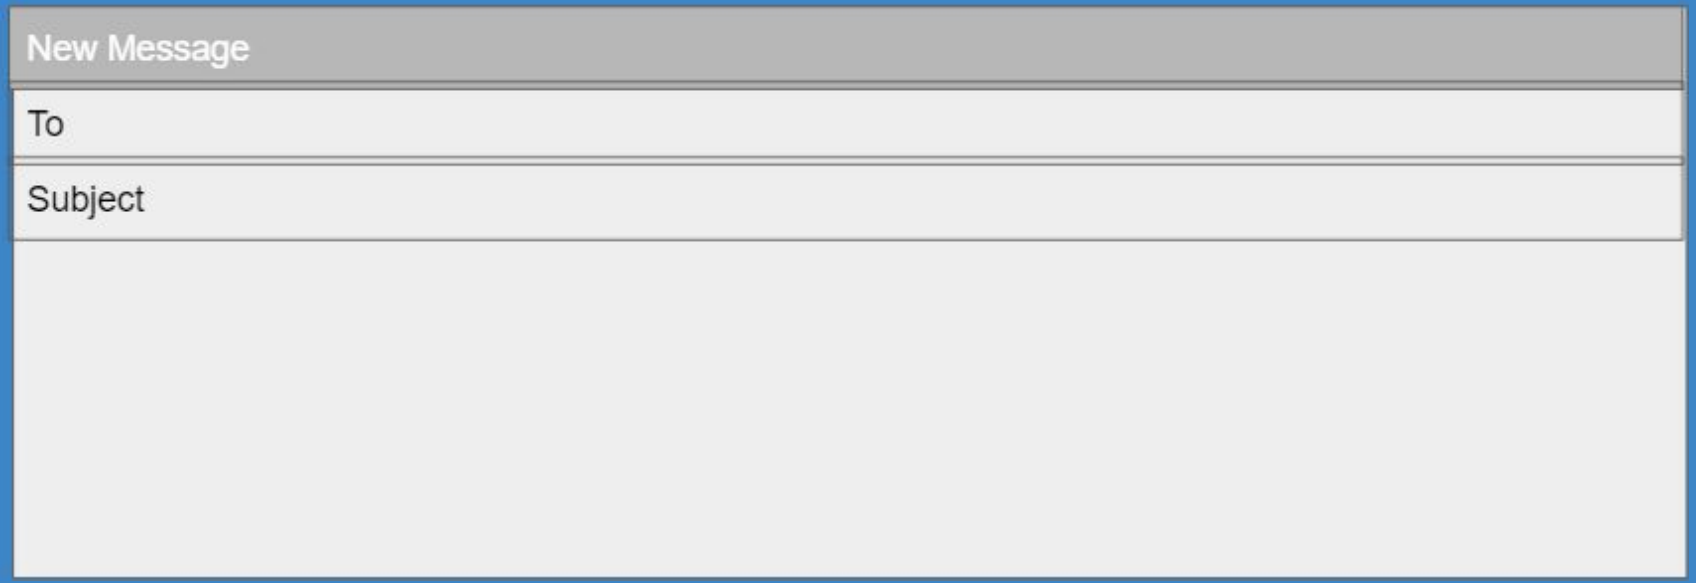

HOMEWORK FOR TUESDAY FEBRUARY 7TH, 2022

- READ CHAPTER 2 IN YOUR BOOK
- COMPLETE QUESTIONS ON YOUR HANDOUT

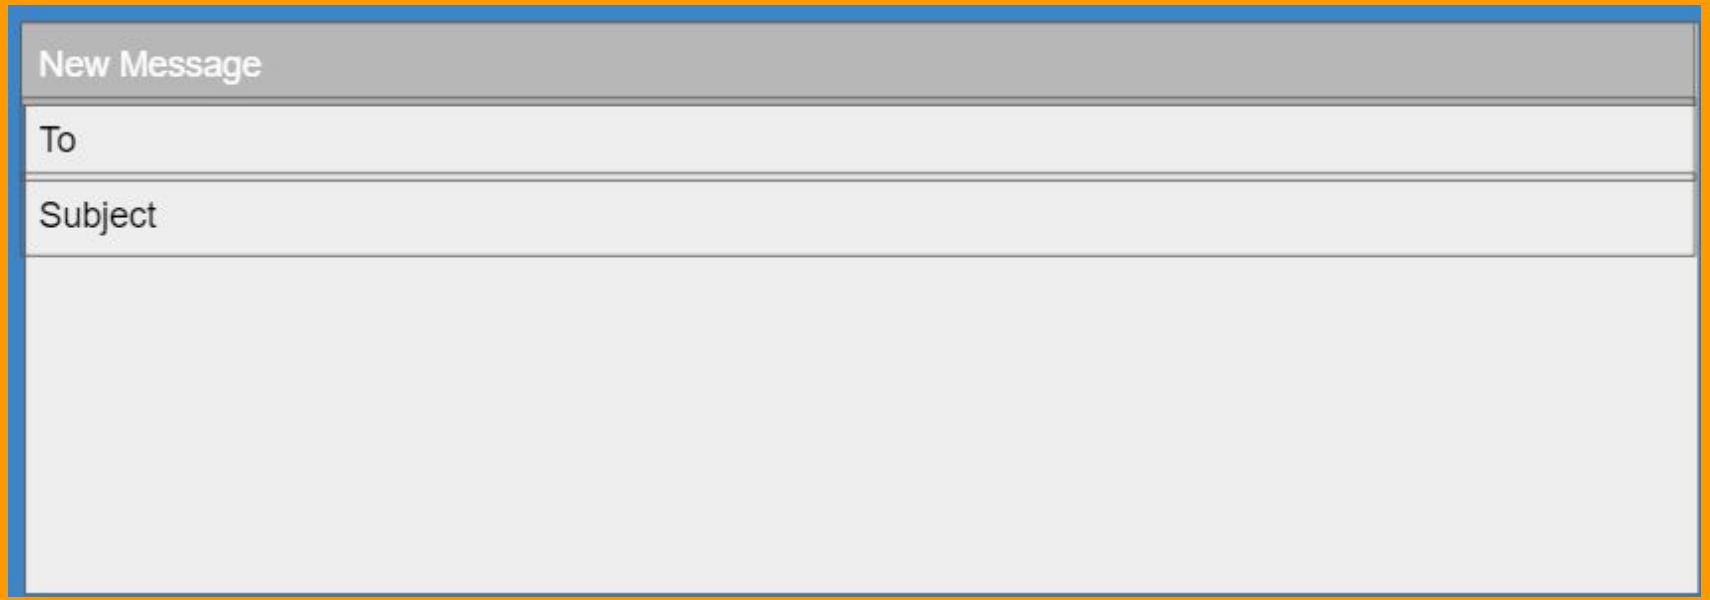

Email #2

Write an email to a friend about setting up a google meet to work on your class project for math.

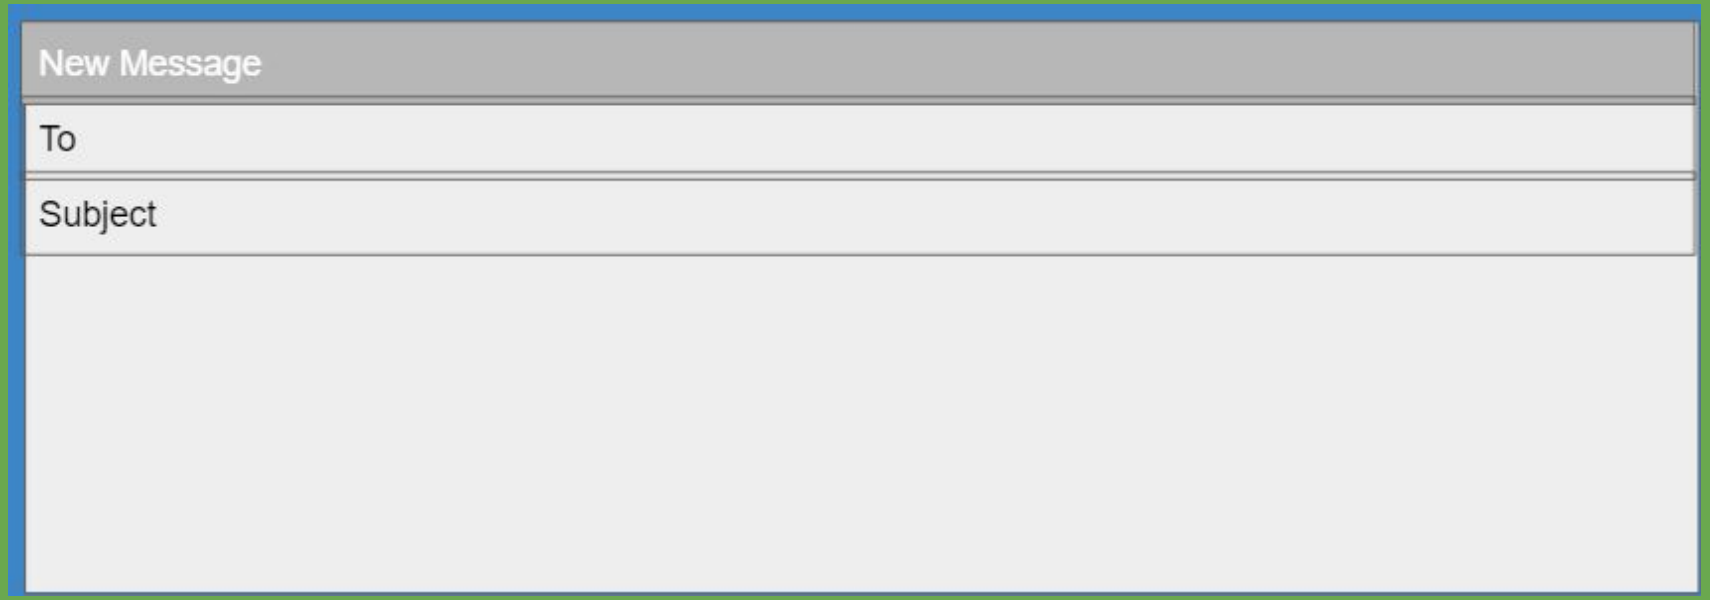

Email #3

Write an email to your new boss at Dairy Queen requesting off from work both Friday and Saturday, so you can babysit your little brother.

Email #4: Chose one of the following options

1. Write an email to Nike about your sneakers that you just received in the mail. The sneakers are both labelled size 8, but are two different sizes.

Email #5: Chose one of the following options

1. Write an email to Cheetos because you bought a bag of spicy cheetos and it was filled with popcorn.

