

2026-2027 AP Exams Registration Deadlines and Fees

All AP Students need to follow the steps below, regardless of whether or not you plan to take the exam.

☐ MyAP

- ☐ Go to myap.collegeboard.org to create an account or access your existing account.
- ☐ Important: Make sure your account is linked to your personal email account, not your school email account. With your school email account, you may miss notifications from College Board and Total Registration and you won't be able to access your account after you graduate.

☐ JOIN A CLASS OR EXAM

- ☐ Click on "Join a Class or Exam." Enroll in your AP class by using the Join Code provided by your AP teacher (or refer to this document for a list of Join Codes for all HMBHS AP courses).
- ☐ Join an Exam refers to those who are registering for an Exam Only. This applies to students taking an exam for a class not offered at HMBHS (ex., AP German).

☐ REGISTER FOR THE EXAM

- ☐ If you plan to take the exam, then you need to click on "Register for Exam." You are not required to take the exam but it's highly encouraged. You will need to confirm your registration for each AP course in which you are enrolled.
- ☐ Click on this link to view screenshots of the process. [see Step 7 for the location of "Register for Exam"]
- ☐ Note that "Joining" the class does not register you for the exam. You must "Register for Exam" if you'd like to take the exam for that course.
