Phases:

Phase 1 - Warning: [Yellow Flag]

- Students who are failing one or two classes will be placed on the Phase 1 “Warning List.”
- Students on the Phase 1 list are eligible to participate in co-curricular activities and have access to privileges.

Phase 2 - Probation: [Gray Flag]

- Students who are failing one or two classes for consecutive eligibility periods will be moved to the Phase 2 “Probation List.”
- Students who are failing three or more classes will be immediately placed on the Phase 2 “Probation List.”
- Students on the Phase 2 list are eligible to participate in practices and attend meetings; however, they are not eligible to participate in games, field trips, dances, bonfires, plays, or competitions of any sort that are not associated with earning a grade.
- Students will remain on Phase 2 until they are passing all of their classes. A “Run-Around Sheet” must be submitted to the Counseling Office, demonstrating that the student is passing all of their classes.

9th Period:

9th-period is the block of time after the regular school day during which students may work on assignments with the assistance of teachers.
