Make-up work not turned in by the time designated by the teacher (and according to feeder district school policy) shall receive a grade of "O." It is the student's responsibility to contact the teacher on the day he or she returns to the class to arrange to make up work. A teacher may require make-up for examinations, clinical time, or other instructional activities.

Course Syllabus

Instructors at the Pulaski County Area Technology Center will provide each student with a syllabus for each course in which the student is enrolled. Each course syllabus must include the name and description of the course, teacher's name, text and other course materials required, reference to KCTCS courses (when appropriate), and grading criteria. Other items that will enhance, but are not required on, the syllabus include procedures for makeup work, reference to academic standards, academic expectations, accommodations for students with special needs, class rules (i.e., if personal protection equipment is required), and other information pertinent to the course.

Such requests apply only to specific instructional content and may not be used to opt out of entire courses, subject areas, or to curriculum, instruction, or programming required by federal law or regulation.

Upon receiving a request, the ATC principal will collaborate with the student's home district principal for review of the request in accordance with applicable policies and procedures.

Career and technical education (CTE) courses are designed to prepare students for industry certifications, postsecondary opportunities, and careers. Opting out of specific instructional content may affect a student's ability to successfully complete coursework, earn industry certifications, or meet career pathway expectations. Students and parents are encouraged to carefully review course requirements and content before enrolling in pathways that may include instruction, materials, or experiences that conflict with religious beliefs.

Student Records and Privacy (OCTE Policy 09.14)

Student records are maintained in accordance with applicable federal and state laws.

Parents and eligible students may:

- Review educational records as permitted by law.
- Request correction of inaccurate information.
- Limit disclosure of information where applicable.

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) 20 U.S.C. § 1232g; 34 CFR Part 99 became effective November 20, 1974. The act denies federal funds to any school district that does not allow parents access to their children's education records.

Parents must be allowed to inspect and review all education records. Parents must be granted a hearing to challenge the contents of the records if requested. For additional information, contact the principal of the school.

Transfer of records to another institution in which a student intends to enroll requires the school to: (1) notify parents of transfer, and (2) inform parents that a copy of the transferred records is available to them if desired.

Release of any information contained in personal school records to any person other than those listed in subsection (b)(1) must be done only upon written consent from the student's parents, specifying what is to be released, and to whom. A copy of records to be released must be made available to parents and students if desired by parents. Exceptions listed under (b)(1) are:

1. Other school officials, including teachers within the educational institution or local educational agency who have legitimate educational interests.

2. Officials of other schools or school systems in which the student intends to enroll, upon condition that the student's parents be notified of the transfer, receives a copy of the record if desired and have an opportunity for a hearing to challenge the content of the record.

3. Authorized representative of (i) the Comptroller General of the United States, (ii) the Secretary, (iii) an administrative head of an education agency (as defined in section 409 of this Act), (iv) state educational authorities, under the conditions set forth in paragraph (3) of this subsection, and

4. In connection with a student's application for or receipt of financial aid.

Parents are to be notified in advance of furnishing information in compliance with a court order or subpoena. Persons or agencies receiving information may transmit the information to the third party only upon written consent of the parents of the student. After a student reaches age 18 or is attending an institution of postsecondary education, the rights transfer to the student. The parents' rights cease when the student takes over.

Questions regarding student records should be directed to school administration.
