Men of the Hill scheduled for Sept. 4th

There is power when men come together and pray. On Friday, September 4th at 8:15 AM, we're inviting men to pray for our students, our staff, our school, and the future of Science Hill. Let's stand together, lift up our school, and seek God's guidance and blessing over Science Hill.

*Our staff does ask that participants wait until parent drop-off ends at 8:05 AM to begin gathering at the front of the building.

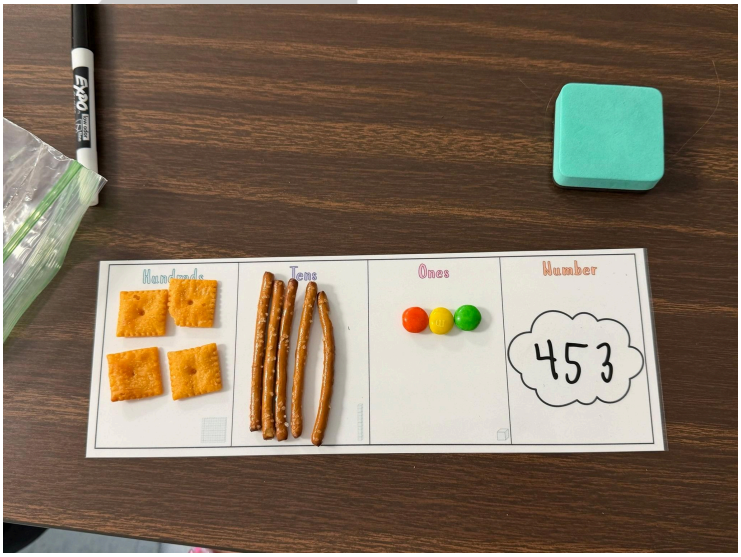

2nd graders use snacks to show place value

Second grade is beginning their study of place value. Students used tasty manipulatives to represent tens and ones, then pushed their thinking further by building three-digit numbers with hundreds, tens, and ones. A fun way to connect models to numbers and build a deeper understanding of place value!

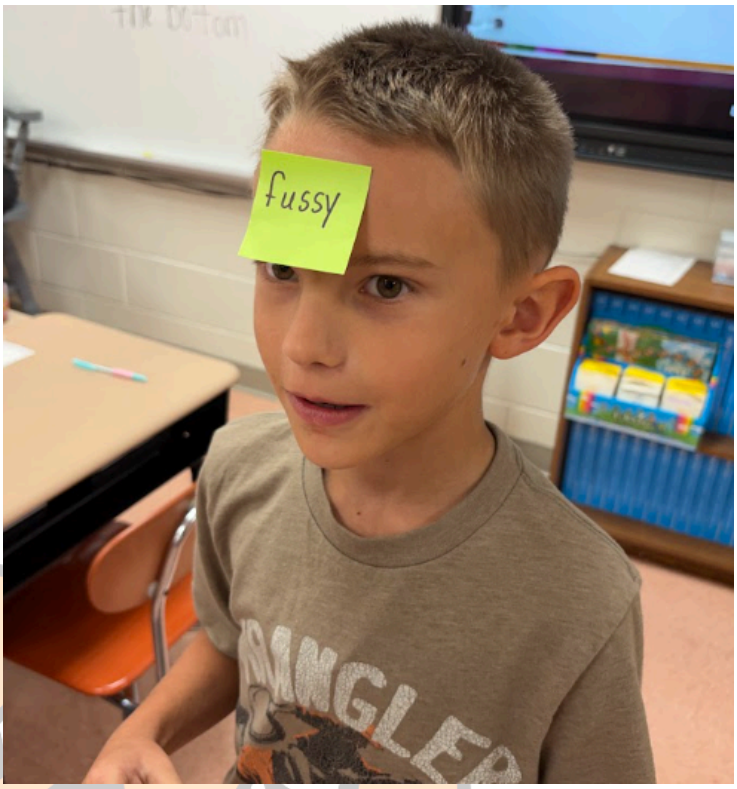

3rd graders use popular game to learn vocabulary words

Students in Ms. Denise King's 3rd grade reading class used their own version of "Hedbaz" to help one another learn their vocabulary words.

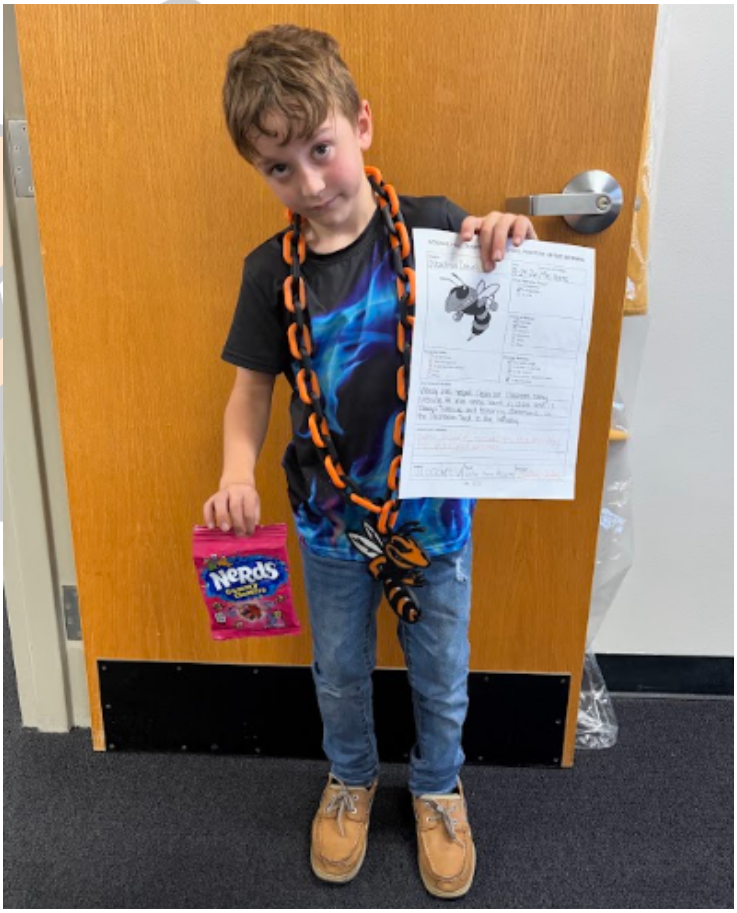

2nd graders review place value

2nd graders in Mr. Jordan Davis' class have been reviewing place value with two digit numbers. We worked in groups today to build numbers in different forms.

Warren & Carroll earn a positive office referral

7th grader Logan Warren was given a positive office referral today for taking the initiative to clean up someone else's mess in the cafeteria. 1st grader Woodrow Carroll was given a positive office referral for working hard. Great job, Logan and Woodrow!

Red is the color of choice in kindergarten

In kindergarten last week, students in Mrs. Macey Speaks' class focused on the color red, and all wore that color to school on Friday.
