GO AWAY

Tell people no!
Go!
Tell a trusted adult!

When do you need to say “no”?

- When someone is hurting you
- When you hear your “Uh Oh” voice
- When someone is touching you and you feel uncomfortable

Tell a trusted adult

Think of 2 trusted
grownups you can tell anything to!

Never Keep a safety
secret from your trusted adult

Tell people “NO!”

You are the boss of your body!

Respectful Touches

High-fives
Fist bumps
Wanted hugs
Playing tag
Petting an animal

Disrespectful Touches

Pushing Hitting Kicking Throwing
Pinching
Unwanted touches

Uh Oh Voice

Feels like a siren in your body!

- heart beating fast
- tummy feels sick
- nervous

your body is telling you something is wrong!

Bathing Suit Zone

You are the boss of your body!

Safe Secrets

- Parties
- Gifts
- No one being harmed

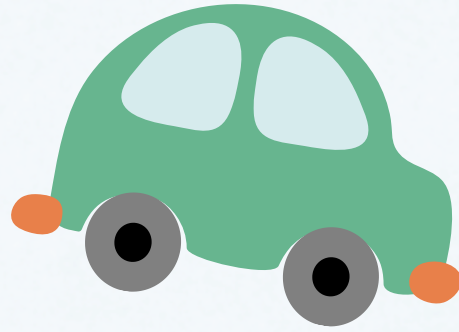

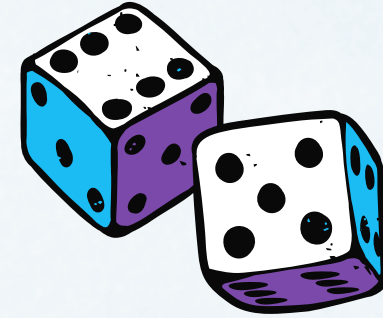

Unsafe Secrets

NEVER Keep secrets about touches that hurt your feelings or your body or make you feel uncomfortable.

Someone who tells you to Keep a secret that makes you feel uncomfortable, is trying to TRICK you.
Tell your trusted adult
RIGHT AWAY!

Bullying

Bullying is when someone keeps being mean on purpose to hurt or control another person. It's not just a one-time thing, it happens over and over again.

3 characteristics of bullying:

- it is on purpose
- it is repeated
- there is an imbalance of power (one sided)

What is NOT bullying?

- Someone accidentally tripping you
- Back and forth
- One time argument
- Disagreeing with someone

Remember: Tell a trusted adult

Never Keep a safety
secret from your trusted adult.
