 Today is our Cougar Pride Spirit Day! Because of Ohana Day, we will not host a lunchtime activity or have the Spirit Table during lunch. However, if you are wearing LOTS of Red or Carmel gear, come out to the main quad during break and see Mrs. Wells for a Cougar Buck. Be sure to hold on to your Cougar Bucks because the Student Store will be open next week!

 8th Graders: Ohana Day begins today after 4th period. When the lunch bells rings, head straight to the gym for a brief presentation by Mr. Morgan before heading to the fields.

 Attention All Students: The Gym is back open! Head to the locker rooms during your PE period.

 The first week of the Wiffle Ball Tournament of Donuts finished with the math class rivalry of the Allentown Alligators vs the Merlanga Math Attackers. Allentown scored in the top of the 1st with a 2-run HR off the bat of Tyson Bartoli. In the top of the 2nd, Tyson took inspiration from Shohei Ohtani and struck out the side before he was reminded, he was pitching to his own team. Sensing weakness, the Math Attackers led off with a single by Tash “the Bash” Karlsen. Ms. Mayer called her shot and hit a wild RBI triple to bring the game to 2-1. The Alligators answered with an RBI double from Kamilah Mora Gallegos plating Jack Spiering, but the hopes for a rally were dashed by a web gem, 1 handed diving catch from Ms. Mayer to end the inning. In the end, Allentown was the numerator and the Math Attackers were the denominator by a score of 3-1. Monday the tournament continues with the Merlanga Math Attackers vs the Silva Swagasaurs. The park is open for practice today at lunch.
