UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA

ALMOST 50% OF OUR GRADUATING SENIORS GO DIRECTLY TO A COMMUNITY COLLEGE YEAR AFTER YEAR. ONE OF THE BENEFITS IS THE TRANSFER AGREEMENT GUARANTEE WITH THE UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA.

1. Choosing your campus

Before you apply, figure out where you want to go. Check out our TAG matrix for of the campuses in the program, and their individual requirements.

2. Complete your TAG application

Use our Transfer Admission Planner to fill out your TAG application. If you have a community college counselor, review it with them. Don't worry if you don't—we own UC TAG advisors who can help you out. You'll need to submit by September the fall term, or May 31st for the winter/spring term. Remember, if you miss the deadline, you can still apply to UC during the regular application period, October December 1 for fall 2026 applicants.

3. Fulfill all your requirements

Once your application's submitted, you'll need to complete all your remaining coursework, and hit the GPA requirements in your TAG agreement.

4. Submit your UC application

When you're on track for all of the above, fill out the application for admission to Make sure you submit your application between October 1 - December 1 for the and between July 1-31 for the winter/spring term.
