Employment of District Staff

Authority

The Board places substantial responsibility for the effective management and operation of district schools and the quality of the educational program with its administrative, professional, classified and support employees.

The Board shall, by a majority vote of all members, approve the employment; set the compensation; and establish the term of employment for each administrative, professional, classified and support employee employed by the district.[1][2][3][4][5][6][7][8]

Approval shall normally be given to the candidates for employment recommended by the Superintendent.

No teacher shall be hired who is related to any member of the Board, as defined in Section 1111 of the Public School Code of 1949, as amended, unless such teacher receives the affirmative vote of a majority of all members of the Board other than the member related to the applicant, who shall abstain from the vote.[9]

The Board authorizes the use of professional, classified and support employees prior to Board approval when necessary to maintain continuity of the educational program and services and the candidate has satisfied legal pre-employment requirements. Retroactive employment shall be recommended to the Board at the next regular Board meeting.

The district shall use the Standard Application for Teaching Positions, but may also establish and implement additional application requirements for professional employees.[15]

An employee's misstatement of fact material to qualifications for employment or determination of salary shall constitute grounds for dismissal by the Board.

The district shall conduct an employment history review in compliance with state law prior to issuing an offer of employment to a candidate. Failure to accurately report required information shall subject the candidate to discipline up to, and including, denial of employment or termination if already hired, and may subject the candidate to civil and criminal penalties. The district may use the information for the purpose of evaluating an applicant's fitness to be hired or for continued employment and may report the information as permitted by law.^[27]

A candidate for employment in the district shall not receive a recommendation for employment without evidence of appropriate certification when such certification is required.^{[10] [11] [12] [28]}

A candidate shall not be employed until s/he has complied with the mandatory background check requirements for criminal history and child abuse and the district has evaluated the results of that screening process.^{[13] [29]}

Each candidate shall report, on the designated form, arrests and convictions as specified on the form. Candidates shall likewise report arrests and convictions that occur subsequently to initially submitting the form. Failure to accurately report such arrests and convictions may subject the individual to denial of employment, termination if already hired, and/or criminal prosecution.^[13]

Delegation of Responsibility

The Superintendent shall develop administrative regulations for employment of staff in accordance with Board policy and state and federal laws and regulations. ^[16]

Staff vacancies that represent opportunities for professional advancement or diversification shall be made known to district employees so they may apply for such positions.

The Superintendent may apply necessary screening procedures to determine a candidate's ability to perform the job functions of the position for which the candidate is being considered.^[17]

The Superintendent shall seek recommendations from former employers and others in assessing the candidate's qualifications. Such recommendations and references shall be retained confidentially and for official use only.

Each certificated administrative and professional employee employed by the district shall be responsible for maintaining a valid certificate when such certificate is required by law.

Title I Requirements

All elementary, middle and secondary teachers employed by the district who teach core academic subjects shall be highly qualified, as defined by federal law and state regulations.[18] [19] [20] [21]

The principal of a school providing Title I programs to students shall annually attest that professional staff teaching in such programs are highly qualified and paraprofessionals providing instructional support in such programs meet required qualification, in accordance with federal law and state regulations. The written certifications shall be maintained in the district office and the school office and shall be available to the public, upon request.[19] [20] [21] [22]

All paraprofessionals providing instructional support in a program supported by Title I funds shall have a secondary school diploma or a recognized equivalent and one (1) of the following:[18] [20] [22]

1. At least two (2) years of study at an institution of higher learning.
2. Associate's or higher degree.
3. Evidence of meeting a rigorous standard of quality through a state or local assessment.

Title I paraprofessionals who solely coordinate parental involvement activities or act as translators are exempt from the above qualifications.

Special Education Paraprofessionals

All instructional paraprofessionals hired by the district, who work under the direction of a certificated staff member to support and assist in providing instructional programs and services to students with disabilities or eligible students, shall have a secondary school diploma and one (1) of the following:[23] [24]

1. At least two (2) years of postsecondary study.
2. Associate's or higher degree.
3. Evidence of meeting a rigorous standard of quality through a state or local assessment.

Instructional paraprofessionals shall provide evidence of twenty (20) hours of staff development activities related to their assignment each school year.[23]

Personal Care Assistants

A personal care assistant provides one-to-one support and assistance to a student, including support and assistance in the use of medical equipment.[23]

Personal care assistants shall provide evidence of twenty (20) hours of staff development activities related to their assignment each school year. The twenty (20) hours of training may include training required by the School-Based Access Program.

Educational Interpreters

An educational interpreter is an individual who provides students who are deaf or hard of hearing with interpreting or transliterating services in an educational setting. To serve as an educational interpreter, an individual shall meet the qualifications set forth in law and regulations.[23]
