Purpose of the Student Code of Conduct

To function properly, education must provide an equal learning opportunity for all students by recognizing, valuing, and addressing the individual needs of every student. In addition to the regular curriculum, principles and practices of good citizenship must also be taught and modeled by school staff. To foster an orderly and distraction-free environment, Texas Leadership has established this Student Code of Conduct (“the Code”) in accordance with state law and the Texas Leadership open-enrollment charter. The Code has been adopted by the Board of Directors, and provides information to parents and students regarding expectations for behavior, consequences of misconduct, and procedures for administering discipline.

In accordance with state law, the Code will be posted at each Texas Leadership campus and/or will be available for review at the campus office and/or <https://texasleadership.net>. Parents will be notified of any violation that may result in a student being suspended or expelled from Texas Leadership. Students must be familiar with the standards set forth in the Student Code of Conduct, as well as campus and classroom rules.

The Code does not define all types and aspects of student behavior, as Texas Leadership may impose campus, classroom, or extracurricular rules in addition to those found in the Code. These rules may be posted in classrooms or given to the student and may or may not constitute violations of the Code. When students participate in student activities, they will also be expected to follow the guidelines and constitutions that further specify Texas Leadership organization’s expectations, student behavior and consequences.

Authority and Jurisdiction

Texas Leadership has disciplinary authority over a student:

1. During the regular school day and while the student is going to and from school on Texas Leadership transportation;
2. During lunch periods in which a student is allowed to leave campus;
3. While the student is attending any school-related activity, regardless of time or location;
4. For any school-related misconduct, regardless of time or location;
5. For any expulsion offense committed while on Texas Leadership property or while attending a school-sponsored or school-related activity of Texas Leadership or another school in Texas;
6. For any expulsion offense committed away from Texas Leadership property and not at a school-sponsored or school-related event, if the misconduct creates a substantial disruption to the educational environment;
7. While the student is in transit to or from school or to or from school-related activities or events;
8. When retaliation against a school employee or volunteer occurs or is threatened, regardless of time or location;
9. When the student commits a felony, including those provided by Texas Education Code §§ 37.006 or 37.0081, regardless of time or location; and
10. When criminal mischief is committed on or off Texas Leadership property or at a school-related event.

Reporting Crimes

In addition to disciplinary consequences, misdemeanor and felony offenses committed on campus or while attending school-sponsored or school-related activities will be reported to an appropriate law enforcement agency.

Standards for Student Conduct

Each student is expected to:

- Demonstrate courtesy, even when others do not.
- Behave in a responsible manner, always exercising self-discipline.
- Attend all classes, regularly and on time.
- Prepare for each class; take appropriate materials and assignments to class.
- Meet Texas Leadership's standards of grooming and dress.
- Obey all campus and classroom rules.
- Respect the rights and privileges of students, teachers, and other Texas Leadership staff and volunteers.
- Respect the property of others, including Texas Leadership property and facilities.
- Cooperate with and assist the school staff in maintaining safety, order, and discipline.
- Adhere to the requirements of the Student Code of Conduct.

Discipline Management Techniques

Disciplinary Management Techniques are designed to improve conduct and to encourage students to adhere to their responsibilities as members of the school community. Disciplinary action will draw on the professional judgment of teachers and administrators and on a range of Discipline Management Techniques. Discipline will be correlated to the seriousness of the offense, the student's age and grade level, the frequency of misbehavior, the student's attitude, the effect of the misconduct on the school environment, and statutory requirements.

Because of these factors, discipline for a particular offense, unless otherwise specified by law, may bring into consideration varying techniques and responses.

Techniques

The following Discipline Management Techniques may be used—alone or in combination—for behavior prohibited by the Student Code of Conduct or by campus or classroom rules:

- Assignment of school duties such as cleaning or picking up litter.
- Behavioral contracts.
- Cooling-off time or "time-out."
- Counseling by teachers, counselors, or administrative personnel.
- Rewards for positive behavior.
- Detention.
- Expulsion from Texas Leadership, as specified in the expulsion section of the Code.
- Grade reductions for cheating, plagiarism, and as otherwise permitted by policy.
- In-school suspension, as specified in the suspension section of the Code.
- Out-of-school suspension, as specified in the suspension section of the Code.
- Parent-teacher conferences.

- Techniques or penalties identified in individual student organizations' extracurricular standards of behavior.
- Referral to an outside agency or legal authority for criminal prosecution in addition to disciplinary measures imposed by Texas Leadership.
- School-assessed and school-administered probation (discipline contracts).
- Seating changes within the classroom.
- Sending the student to the office or other assigned area.
- Temporary confiscation of items that disrupt the educational process.
- Withdrawal of privileges, such as participation in extracurricular activities, field trips, eligibility for seeking and holding honorary offices, or membership in school-sponsored clubs and organizations.
- Withdrawal or restriction of bus privileges.
- Other strategies and consequences as determined by school officials.

Corporal Punishment

Texas Leadership will NOT administer corporal punishment upon a student for misconduct.

Disciplinary Consequences (may not necessarily be followed in order and progressive disciplinary measures are not required; principal and/or disciplinary review committee may exercise discretion based on discipline history, intent, self-defense, and disability.)

1. Principal-assigned campus consequence (ISS and/or up to 3 days OSS)
2. Out of school suspension for five–ten days.
3. Expulsion.

Student Code of Conduct Consequences

Detention

Detention may be held on each day during school for up to eight hours. Students who serve detention must make arrangements to be picked up from school. Parents may request, in person, a delay of the detention; no phone calls or notes will be accepted.

After School Detention

The following rules apply to students assigned to after school detention:

1. Students will bring materials to work on. Classroom materials may also be sent by a teacher.
2. Students will not be permitted to leave detention to retrieve personal items; all materials must be brought to the detention room when reporting.
3. Sleeping is not permitted.
4. Students will follow all rules concerning classroom behavior. Failure to comply will mean suspension from school.
5. Any student assigned to detention must stay the entire time. Students refusing to complete their time will be suspended from school.

Suspension

Texas Leadership utilizes two kinds of suspension: in school suspension and out of school suspension.

In School Suspension

The following rules and regulations apply to all students assigned to in school suspension (“ISS”):

1. Students must report to the detention room at 7:45 a.m. ISS will be run from 8:00 a.m. until dismissal time.
2. Students may not bring food or drink into the detention room.
3. No disruptive behavior will be allowed.
4. Sleeping is prohibited.
5. Students must abide by the Texas Leadership policies and behavioral standards during their suspension period.

Failure to follow these guidelines will be reported to the Principal or designee for further action, which may include up to three days of out of school suspension or any other Level I consequence.

Out of School Suspension

In deciding whether to order out-of-school suspension, the administrator may take into consideration factors including self-defense, prior discipline history, the student's status as a student in foster care or who is homeless, intent or lack of intent and other appropriate or mitigating factors determined by the administrator.

In addition to the Code of Conduct violations listed above that may result in suspension, the Principal or designee has authority to suspend a student for a period of up to three school days for any of the following additional reasons:

1. The need to further investigate an incident,
2. A recommendation to expel the student, or
3. An emergency constituting endangerment to health or safety.

Process for Suspensions Lasting Up to Three Days

Prior to suspending a student for up to three days, the Principal or designee must attempt to hold an informal conference with the student to give notice of suspension and the reasons for the suspension to the student. Additionally, prior to suspending a student for up to three days, the Principal or designee must attempt to hold an informal conference with the student to:

1. Notify the student of the accusations against him/her,
2. Allow the student to relate his or her version of the incident, and
3. Determine whether the student's conduct warrants suspension.

If the Principal or designee determines the student's conduct warrants suspension during the school day for up to three days, the Principal or designee will make reasonable effort to notify the student's parent(s) that the student has been suspended before the student is sent home. The Principal or designee will notify a suspended student's parent(s) of the period of suspension, the grounds for the suspension, and the time and place for an opportunity to confer with the Principal or designee.

A student shall receive credit for work missed during the period of suspension if the student makes up work missed during the period of suspension within the same number of school days the student was absent on suspension.

Special Rules for Suspensions Involving Homeless Students

Texas Leadership may not place a student who is homeless in out-of-school suspension unless the student engages in the following conduct while on school property or while attending a school-sponsored or school-related activity on or off school property:

1. Unlawful possession of a firearm or other weapon;
2. Assault, sexual assault, aggravated assault, or aggravated sexual assault; or
3. Selling, giving, or delivering to another person or possessing, using, or being under the influence of any amount of marijuana or a controlled substance, a dangerous drug, or an alcoholic beverage.

4. Documented conduct that results in repeated and significant classroom disruption.

Emergency Placement

If the Principal or designee reasonably determines that a student's behavior is so unruly, disruptive, or abusive that it substantially interferes with a teacher's ability to instruct the class, other students' ability to learn, or the operation of Texas Leadership or any school-sponsored activity, the Principal or designee may immediately remove the student. The Principal or designee may impose immediate suspension if he or she reasonably believes such action is necessary to protect persons or property from imminent harm. At the time of such an emergency removal, the student will be given verbal notice of the reason for the action and appropriate hearings will be scheduled within a reasonable time after the emergency removal.

Unauthorized Persons; Refusal of Entry, Ejection, and Identification

A school administrator, resource officer, or peace officer may refuse to allow a person to enter on or may eject a person from property under district control under the following circumstances:

- The person poses a substantial risk of harm to any person
- The person continues behavior that is inappropriate for a school setting after a verbal warning from the administrator, resource officer, or peace officer
- A verbal warning and persistent inappropriate behavior are not required for a person serving as a referee, judge, or other official of an extracurricular athletic activity or competition sponsored or sanctioned by the school district or by the University Interscholastic League to eject a spectator from the athletic activity or competition.

Identification may be required of any person on the property. The school will keep a record of each verbal warning issued including the name of the person to whom the warning was issued and the date of issuance. If a person is refused entry or ejected from a school property, the district shall provide to the person written information explaining the appeal process.

An appeal to refusal of entry or ejection made be made by contacting the Director of Student Services at mark.hennesy@texasleadership.net

Removal from School Transportation

A student being transported by Texas Leadership transportation to or from school or a school-sponsored or school-related activity may be removed from a school vehicle for conduct violating the school's established standards for conduct in a school vehicle.

District Disciplinary Hearings

If an incident could potentially require corrective measures greater than a three-day suspension, the campus Disciplinary Review Committee will consider the student's behavior. Before taking an incident to a Discipline Review Committee, the principal must notify the parent and student of the accusations against him/her, and must allow the student and/or parent to relate his/her version of the incident. The principal may ask questions of the student and/or parent to gain clarification. This information will be shared with the Discipline Review Committee.

If the principal believes there is sufficient evidence to support a consequence greater than a 3-day suspension, the principal will then establish a Discipline Review Committee (see handbook for details) that can refer the incident to a District Disciplinary Hearing. The Discipline Review Committee and Administration will follow the same due process procedures, including notice and appeal rights, as listed below under “Conferences, Hearings and Appeals.”

Upon receiving a recommendation from the Campus Disciplinary Review Committee for referral to a District Disciplinary Hearing, the Director of Student Services or designee will review the campus documentation and will determine the following:

- Return the student to the classroom (a Behavior Contract signed by the student and parent may be required);
- Convene a due process hearing to consider a consequence

Expulsion may be imposed for violations specifically designated in the Code of Conduct or as enumerated in the Texas Education Code, Chapter 37.007. If a hearing is held, the Director of Student Services shall invite the principal or other appropriate administrator, the student's parent(s)/guardian(s), the teacher removing the student from class, if any, and the student. If a student's action requires automatic expulsion pursuant to Texas Education Code Chapter 37.007, the Director of Student Services shall schedule an expulsion hearing no later than the third class day following the student's removal from class, unless the Director of Student Services and the student's parent(s) or guardian(s) mutually agree to postpone the hearing. At the hearing the student—who may be represented by his/her parents(s)/guardian(s) or another adult who is not an employee of Texas Leadership—is entitled to written or oral notice of the reasons and basis for the expulsion, and an opportunity to respond to the reasons for removal shall be allowed.

A decision shall be rendered, in writing, specifying whether the expulsion was ordered and, if so, the length of the expulsion, the procedures for re-enrollment (if any), and the right to appeal to the Chief of Staff or Superintendent. Should the expulsion be appealed, the decision of the Assistant Chief of Staff or Superintendent is final.

Hearing before the District Disciplinary Hearing Committee

Texas Leadership shall make a good faith effort to inform the student and the student's parent(s) of the time and place for the hearing, and Texas Leadership shall hold the hearing regardless of whether the student, the student's parent(s) or another adult representing the student attends. The Director of Student Services or designee may audio record the hearing. The Director of Student Services will chair the hearing. After considering all of the evidence presented at the hearing, the Director of Student Services will make the decision as to the appropriate disciplinary consequences for the student.

Within 48 hours or two school days, whichever is later, following the hearing, the Director of Student Services or designee will notify the student and the student's parent(s) in writing of his/her decision as to whether the student's conduct warrants extended suspension and/or expulsion and, if so, the decision shall specify:

1. The length of the extended suspension or expulsion, if any;
2. When or if the expulsion is not permanent, the procedures for re-admittance at the end of the expulsion period if at all; and
3. The right to appeal the Director of Student Services' decision to the Assistant Superintendent or Deputy Superintendent.

Appeal to the Chief of Staff or Superintendent

The student or his or her parent(s) may appeal the extended suspension or expulsion decision to the Chief of Staff or Superintendent (if the Chief of Staff is unavailable) by sending written notification of the appeal within five calendar days of the date of receipt of the Director of Student Services' decision.

The student and/or his or her parent(s) will be informed of the date, time, and location of the meeting in which the disciplinary consequence will be reviewed. The Chief of Staff or Superintendent will review the disciplinary administrative record and any audio recording or transcription/minutes of any hearings or conferences before the District Disciplinary Hearing Committee. The appeal shall be limited to the issues and documents considered during the disciplinary hearing. The exception would be if the administration intends to rely on evidence not included in the hearing record. In such an instance, the administration shall provide the student or parent(s) notice of the nature of the evidence at least three days before the appeal before the Chief of Staff or Superintendent.

The Chief of Staff or Superintendent may, but is not required to, allow an opportunity for the student or parent(s) and the administration to each make a presentation and provide rebuttal and an opportunity for questioning by the Assistant Superintendent/Deputy Superintendent. The Chief of Staff or Superintendent will consider the appeal and may request that the Director of Student Services provide an explanation for the disciplinary decision.

The Chief of Staff or Superintendent will communicate the result of the appeal to the parents and student. The Chief of Staff or Superintendent may not delegate his/her authority to issue a decision, and any decision by the Chief of Staff or Superintendent is final and may not be appealed.

As stated above, disciplinary consequences will not be deferred pending the outcome of an appeal of an extended suspension or expulsion to the Chief of Staff or Superintendent.

Discretionary Expulsion for Attendance

Chronic Absenteeism

A student engages in chronic absenteeism when the student accumulates 10 or more absences in a semester or 19 or more absences during the school year.

Consequences

A student who engages in chronic absenteeism shall be subject to progressive prevention and intervention measures. These measures may escalate up to and including discretionary expulsion.

For additional information regarding the expulsion process, including due process and hearings, refer to the section titled “District Disciplinary Hearings” in this Code.

Re-Enrollment

Any student who has withdrawn or been expelled from Texas Leadership due to disciplinary issues and reapplies for admission must meet the following guidelines:

1. The student may not apply for one semester from the date of last attendance unless stipulated differently in an expulsion letter;
2. The student must provide at least three references with telephone numbers and letters of recommendation from the school attended after exiting from Texas Leadership. One reference must be from an administrator, one from a teacher, and one from a counselor;
3. The student’s grades and conduct must exhibit a reformed attitude; and
4. The student and parent must petition the campus administration, in writing, and request to be re-enrolled at Texas Leadership.

The campus administrator or campus PEIMS Registrar shall notify the charter system PEIMS Director once all of the above criteria have been met and a decision has been made to allow the student to re-enroll in Texas Leadership.

Student Discipline Contract

Campus administration may create a specific student discipline contract with students and parents with the sole purpose to call attention to and redirect specific behaviors. A breach in this agreement by the student is cause for a Disciplinary Review Committee meeting.

Disciplinary Review Committee

Students whose behavior results in continued office referrals, or whose behavior is deemed a threat to the learning environment, will be subject to review by the Disciplinary Review Committee.

It is the goal of this committee to ensure that an environment is maintained that is conducive to safety and education and it may be asked to review any student’s behavior believed to be a threat to this environment. Further, the Disciplinary Review Committee bears the responsibility to consider the best interests of students and their continued advancement, both educationally and socially. The committee may recommend any disciplinary consequence up to a three-day suspension. If the committee believes that consequences greater than a three day suspension are appropriate, the student may be referred to the Director of Student Services. The Director of Student Services, after considering the offenses, statements of the administration, teachers, students, and parents will either arrange a District Disciplinary Hearing or send the matter back to the campus Disciplinary Review Committee for further consideration. The Director of Student Services may order further corrective measures up to and including expulsion when it deems that a student has continual disregard for prohibited behaviors. The ultimate decision for disciplinary consequences rests with the campus principal or in the case of consequences greater than a three day suspension, with the Director of Student Services.

Each elementary school and secondary school shall form a Disciplinary Review Committee that will be composed of the campus Principal or designee, and four faculty members. These representatives may change intermittently based on their availability to attend a meeting and whether or not the representatives actually teach or coach the student in question.

Conferences, Hearings, and Appeals

All students are entitled to conferences, hearings, and/or appeals of disciplinary matters as provided by applicable state and federal law, and Texas Leadership policy.

When the Discipline Review Committee recommends that a student's conduct may warrant suspension for more than three days (extended suspension) or expulsion, the Director of Student Services will provide the student's parent(s) with written notice of:

1. The reasons for the proposed disciplinary action; and
2. The date and location for a hearing before the Director of Student Services or designee, within five school days from the date of the disciplinary action.

The notice shall further state that, at the hearing, the student:

1. May be present;
2. Shall have an opportunity to present evidence;
3. Shall be apprised and informed of Texas Leadership's evidence;
4. May be accompanied by his or her parent(s); and
5. May be represented by an attorney.

No Credit Earned

Except when required by law, students will not earn academic credit during a period of expulsion.

Placement of Students with Disabilities

All disciplinary actions regarding students with disabilities (504 or special education under the IDEA) shall be conducted in accordance with applicable federal and state laws.

A student with a disability shall not be removed from his or her current placement for disciplinary reasons and/or pending appeal to the Board of Directors for more than ten days without action by the student's admission, review, and dismissal committee to determine appropriate services in the interim and otherwise in accordance with applicable law. If a special education due process appeal to a TEA special education hearing officer is made, the student with a disability shall remain in the then current education setting in place at the time such appeal is noticed to Texas Leadership, unless Texas Leadership and the student's parent(s) agree otherwise.

Gun-Free Schools Act

In accordance with the federal Gun-Free Schools Act, Texas Leadership shall expel, from the student's regular program for a period of one year, any student who is determined to have brought a firearm, as defined by federal law, to school. The Principal or designee may modify the term of expulsion for a student or assess another comparable penalty that results in the student's expulsion from the regular school program on a case-by-case basis and in accordance with legal requirements.

For the purposes of this section, “firearm” means:

1. Any weapon – including a starter gun – which will, or is designed to, or which may readily be converted to expel a projectile by the action of an explosive from the frame or receiver of any such weapon;
2. Any firearm muffler or firearm silencer;
3. “Destructive device” means any explosive, incendiary, or poison gas bomb, grenade, rocket having a propellant charge of more than four ounces, missile having an explosive or incendiary charge of more than one-quarter ounce, mine, or any similar device.

The term also includes any weapon (other than a shotgun or shotgun shell generally recognized as particularly suitable for sporting purposes) that will, or may be readily converted to, expel a projectile by the action of an explosive or other propellant and has any barrel with a bore of more than one-half inch in diameter. It further includes any combination of parts designed or intended for use in converting a device into a destructive device as described above, from which a destructive device may be readily assembled.

Gang-Free Zones and Security Personnel

Texas Leadership Public Schools is a gang-free zone. Certain criminal offenses committed in, on, or within 1,000 feet of school property are subject to enhanced penalties under state law. TLPS may also employ or contract for security personnel to help maintain a safe campus environment. Full notices regarding Gang-Free Zones and the authority of Security Personnel are contained in the Student Code of Conduct, which is available on the school website and at each campus office.

Duties of Security Personnel

TLPS may employ or contract with security personnel to assist in maintaining a safe and orderly environment on school property and at school-sponsored or school-related activities. Security personnel have the authority, subject to the limitations of law and the terms of any applicable contract, to:

1. Protect the safety and welfare of any person in the jurisdiction of the school and protect the property of the school;
2. Coordinate and cooperate with commissioned officers of all other law enforcement agencies in the enforcement of the provisions of the security contract as necessary.
3. Investigate violations of school policy, rules, and regulations as requested by the Superintendent and participate in hearings concerning alleged violations.
4. Carry weapons as permitted by applicable law (only for Level III Commissioned Security Officers and properly commissioned officers).
5. Carry out all other duties as directed by the Superintendent or designee.

Parents and students are expected to cooperate with security personnel in the performance of their duties. Security personnel also assist in the implementation of the school's Multi-Hazard Emergency Operations Plan (MEOP) and may participate in training and drills.

Officers shall protect School staff members and students in the jurisdiction listed in the security agreement. Officers shall patrol by foot and vehicle around the Interior/Exterior of School property, checking for unwanted subjects and any type of suspicious activity. Officers shall provide a visible deterrent for property crimes and crimes against the School and its students, which may include but are not limited to criminal mischief, graffiti, larceny, burglary, criminal tampering, trespass, misapplication of property, etc.

Officers shall also alert law enforcement authorities of school incidents immediately, as appropriate. Officers shall provide the school with an Incident Report detailing activity, incidents, and/or maintenance problems noted by the security officer, as warranted.

Glossary

The glossary provides legal definitions and locally established definitions and is intended to assist in understanding terms related to the Student Code of Conduct.

Abuse is improper or excessive use.

Abusable Volatile Chemical Offense, as defined by Health and Safety Code § 485.001 and 485.031. No student shall inhale, ingest, apply, use, or possess an abusable volatile chemical with intent to inhale, ingest, apply or use any of these in a manner:

1. Contrary to the directions for use, cautions, or warnings appearing on a label of a container of the chemical; and
2. Designed to affect the central nervous system, create or induce a condition of intoxication, hallucination, or elation, or change, distort, or disturb the person's eyesight, thinking process, balance, or coordination.

No student shall knowingly deliver to a person younger than 18 an abusable volatile chemical. Health and Safety Code § 485.032

No student shall knowingly use or possess with intent to use inhalant paraphernalia to inhale, ingest, or otherwise introduce into the human body an abusable volatile chemical. No student shall knowingly deliver, sell, or possess with intent to deliver or sell inhalant paraphernalia knowing that that person who receives it intends to use it to inhale, ingest, apply, use, or otherwise introduce into the human body an abusable volatile chemical. Health and Safety Code § 485.033

Antisemitism means a certain perception of Jews that may be expressed as hatred toward Jews. The term includes rhetorical and physical acts of antisemitism directed toward Jewish or non-Jewish individuals or their property or toward Jewish community institutions and religious facilities. Examples of antisemitism are included with the International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance's "Working Definition of Antisemitism" adopted on May 26, 2016.
