

Cause and Effect

Whistle for WillieComprehension:
Cause and Effect

Read the passage below.

A rabbit hopped through the forest. He found a garden full of carrots. Just as he finished some of the carrots, a boy ran out of the house. "Get away from our carrots!" he cried.

As the boy ran up, he saw how hungry the rabbit looked. The rabbit hid behind a tree.

"You do look hungry," the boy said. He pulled up a few carrots. When the boy walked away, the rabbit hopped over and ate.
