

The science lesson consists of passages. Students are to read the passages then write a short five sentence paragraph of what they learned.