- Chad Cargill: A hands-on, practical workshop covering test content and successful techniques.

  This three-hour workshop is a practical instruction session developed by Chad Cargill, a graduate of Oklahoma State University. It is designed for students who need a few extra points on their ACT to win certain scholarships or who are a few points away from qualifying to get into college. This workshop is packed full of relevant, practical information on what will be on the test and how to master the techniques that will help increase your ACT score. The workshop is not a practice test.

  Supplies: Mr. Cargill will provide all the workshop handouts. Bring a pencil and calculator.

  Optional: 540-page prep book for $30.00 including tax. All concepts on the workshop notes will contain page number references to the book. This prep book can be purchased at the workshop; cash or individual checks are accepted. Checks can be made out to Cargill Consulting, Inc. (please, no temporary checks). This item can also be purchased online at www.chadcargill.com. You are under no obligation to make any purchases.
