COLLEGE & CAREER PREPPARTION

Refine College/Program List: Narrow down colleges or training programs that align with your interests and goals.

Visit Campuses: If possible, visit college campuses in person or take virtual tours. Contact colleges to inquire about "College Days" or "College Weekends" they may offer.

Research Affordability: Utilize net price calculators on college websites to compare costs, including living expenses if considering on-campus housing.

Prepare for Applications:

Start compiling a detailed list of honors and activities for applications like the Common App.

Begin drafting your essays and supplemental essays.

Request letters of recommendation from teachers, coaches, or mentors in advance.

SENIOR ADVICE COLUMN

- For high school seniors, the key is to balance academic responsibilities with enjoying the final year and preparing for the future. Focus on completing college applications, exploring scholarship opportunities, and staying organized with deadlines. Simultaneously, make time for friends, create memories, and participate in school events to make the most of the year.
- Develop good study habits: Continue to prioritize your academics and manage your time effectively.
- Explore your interests and passions: Discover what truly motivates you and consider how it might translate into a career.
- Build a professional network: Start connecting with people in your desired field and consider creating a LinkedIn profile.
- Develop essential life skills: Learn how to manage your finances, time, and relationships.
- Don't be afraid to ask for help: Seek guidance from teachers, counselors, parents, or mentors when needed.

ACADEMICS & COLLEGE PLANNING

- Start college applications early: Don't procrastinate on applications, essays, and financial aid forms.
- Research colleges and majors: Explore different options and find programs that align with your interests and career goals.
- Seek guidance from school counselors: They can provide valuable advice on college applications, scholarships, and career paths.
- Maintain good grades: Colleges may revoke acceptance if final transcripts don't meet their standards.
- Explore scholarship opportunities: Start researching and applying for scholarships to help fund your education.
