Instructions for Day 1, Livestock Industry

If you have access to iCEV sign on to watch the videos or at least read the video transcript.

After reviewing the materials, research the history of cattle driving in America including prominent figures from the past. Use this information to create a powerpoint as described in the project instructions. Follow all the instructions.