

* Child Abuse and Mandated Reporter Training (Act 126) ****

On July 5, 2012, Governor Corbett signed into law Act of July 5, 2012, P.L. 1084, No. 126 Cl. 24 Session of 2012, which amended the Public School Code of 1949 to mandate that all school entities (a public school, charter school, cyber charter school, private school, nonpublic school, intermediate unit or area vocational-technical school) and independent contractors of school entities provide certain training to all employees who have direct contact with children. Direct contact with children has been defined as “the possibility of care, supervision, guidance or control of children or routine interaction with children”. The law went into effect on January 2, 2013. ☐Official effective date was January 2, 2013. Training will then be required every five (5) years.

FREE WEBINAR Options:

1. www.reportabusepa.pitt.edu. Click on the Registration link at the top of the page.
2. The course is available on the Department of Education’s SAS Portal. There is no charge for the course. Participants who do not have a SAS account must first register for one by visiting <http://pdesas.org/>. To register for the course, participants must log into the SAS PD center <http://pdc.pdesas.org/> and then click on “Course Catalog/Registration” under the menu button in the upper right hand corner of the screen. The course is listed under the “Non-Facilitated” tab. When registering for the course, participants will choose a track specific to their role (i.e. teacher, chief school administrator or staff member). All participants will receive a certificate of completion. Educators holding Pennsylvania certification will receive Act 48 credit. A brief assessment will be given at the end of the course. All content must be viewed prior to taking the assessment and receiving a certificate.